The football team recorded their heterosexual privilege, white issues, such as race oppression, privilege, Language, and the assistant Professor of Sociology, Organization, Communication, and Privilege, Language, and the ‘Other’ focused on a variety of issues, such as race oppression, heterosexual privilege, white privilege, and class oppression. These topics were written on paper, and the group was asked to write examples under whichever ones they thought are displayed on campus.

Touching on her group’s discussion, Dr. Mezey explained, “The way that systems that organize keep structures of privilege and oppression in place. The attitudes about those different from us, the way that systems are organized, keep structures of privilege and oppression in place. Students at Monmouth University can fight against racism, classism, sexism, and heterosexism, which our institutions are set up to promote the campus. Families started to arrive at the event as early as 9:15 for the 12:30 event and took advantage of everything that was being offered. There was free food in Wilson Hall and tours offered, while some took advantage of the chairs that were placed out on Shadow Lawn. People who had not registered yet were able to register at tables located between Bey Hall and the Student Center or between McAllan Hall and the Plangere Center. Parents were given a packet full of information about the university, as well as a map and the potential freshmen were given backpacks as a thank you for attending the Open House.

“Students were also given disposable cameras to reiterate the theme of Open House: ‘Picture Yourself At Monmouth University,’ said Undergraduate Admissions Director Lauren Vento Cifelli, whose office helped organize the whole event. Some of the activities that were offered throughout the day were the All Lifestyles Included (ALI) table in Erlanger Gardens. “It’s gorgeous the day and campus was joking with them about how gorgeous the day and campus was.”

Not only could the parents and students explore different major opportunities, they were also able to check out the Student Services and Programs information hub in Wilson Hall as well as explore the many different types of clubs and organizations offered on campus in the Erlanger Gardens. At the end of the day, the students and parents were offered a chance to get more in touch with faculty at a dessert reception held by the Student Center.

At 12:30, the Monmouth University Chamber Choir began singing for the audience’s entertainment until the speakers were ready. President Paul Gaffney greeted the parents and students, joking with them about how gorgeous the day and campus was saying, “I promise if you come here, every day will be like today.”

“Monmouth University is host!” President Gaffney said, referring to Monmouth’s recent successes with U.S. News and World Report, Princeton Review, and the Collegiate Learning Assessment (CLA). “We’re skyrocketing through the ratings!” Both Provost Thomas Pear-son and Vice President of Student Services, Mary Anne Nagy attended the university’s Open House on Sunday, October 7, and echoed the president’s sentiments. Pearson talked about Monmouth’s successes referring back to the C.L.A and our success on the test while Nagy talked about the opportunities that open up for students at the school.

Monmouth University senior, Andrea Johnson was sitting at the All Lifestyles Included (ALI) table in Erlanger Gardens. “It’s really, really interesting and fun because we have all the organizations between Greek Society, International Reading Association, and Arts Club. There are very diverse groups amongst us today.”

Prospective student, Andrew Padula, traveled forty-five minutes from Jackson, NJ and was excited to be at the Open House. “The campus has a very homey feel to it and a lot of the students around here seem very nice. Everyone seems like they’re well-knit together.” Padula intends to study business if he decides to attend Monmouth, but has yet to figure out what aspect of business he wants to be apart of. All he knows is that he is “ready to experience new things.”

“Here at Monmouth,” Vice President Nagy said, “We really believe that the purpose of an under-graduate education is not just to prepare you for a career, but to prepare you for life.”

Approximately 5,500 visitors attended the university’s Open House on Sunday, October 7.
In Memoriam

The Monmouth University community has lost a great alumnus and the world has lost a truly bright light. I feel honored and lucky to have known KOVAS KAZIMIERAS ARDYS JUSKA. He was the type of student that made my job in study abroad so fulfilling. He knew how to take hold of his dreams and make them reality.

When students return home from their study abroad they often tell me how much they want to go back again someday to work or continue their education. Most never do, but Kovas made it happen. It was a shocking letter to write to Kovas’ family. I still remember writing one of his letters of recommendation for The London School of Economics and Political Science and I couldn’t say enough good things about him. He was a positive, upbeat person who had a kind heart and gentle nature. I miss him not being in this world anymore and I can’t begin to imagine the sorrow of his family.

The one thing I know for sure is this: Life can be snatched away from you in a minute. You tend not to think about that when you’re young and in college. I believe that Kovas lived a vivid and passionate life even though it ended much too soon. He probably experienced more of our world than most people do in a lifetime.

When he studied abroad at Regents College in Spring 2005 he was one of those students who made sure to travel a bit off the beaten path. He visited several countries in eastern and northern Europe. He made an effort to step out of the box and meet students from various cultural backgrounds. He was a big-picture thinker and didn’t get all caught up in the small stuff. He truly had goals and was living life to the fullest. Remember that today you are alive and didn’t get all caught up in the small stuff. He truly had goals and was living life to the fullest. Remember that today you are alive.

Kovas had a kind heart and gentle nature. I miss him not being in this world anymore and I can’t begin to imagine the sorrow of his family.

When students return home from their study abroad they often tell me how much they want to go back again someday to work or continue their education. Most never do, but Kovas made it happen. It was a shocking letter to write to Kovas’ family. I still remember writing one of his letters of recommendation for The London School of Economics and Political Science and I couldn’t say enough good things about him. He was a positive, upbeat person who had a kind heart and gentle nature. I miss him not being in this world anymore and I can’t begin to imagine the sorrow of his family.

The one thing I know for sure is this: Life can be snatched away from you in a minute. You tend not to think about that when you’re young and in college. I believe that Kovas lived a vivid and passionate life even though it ended much too soon. He probably experienced more of our world than most people do in a lifetime.

When he studied abroad at Regents College in Spring 2005 he was one of those students who made sure to travel a bit off the beaten path. He visited several countries in eastern and northern Europe. He made an effort to step out of the box and meet students from various cultural backgrounds. He was a big-picture thinker and didn’t get all caught up in the small stuff. He truly had goals and was living life to the fullest. Remember that today you are alive and didn’t get all caught up in the small stuff. He truly had goals and was living life to the fullest. Remember that today you are alive.

Sincerely,
Robyn Asaro
Assistant Director of Study Abroad

Fundraiser Promotes Breast Cancer Awareness

Zeta Tau Alpha and Sigma Pi host “Think Pink” Volleyball Tournament

Friday, October 5, Zeta Tau Alpha and Sigma Pi held a volleyball tournament fundraiser in Boylan Gym for breast cancer awareness. Each team donated $25 to play, contributing $5 a player.

Being that October is breast cancer awareness month, it was an opportunity for Zeta Tau Alpha to donate to their sorority philanthropy. All of the proceeds from the event are being donated to the Susan G. Komen Foundation for breast cancer.

This was the first time that ZTA and Sigma Pi hosted this kind of fundraising event but they hope to make it an annual occurrence. Other Monmouth organizations were in attendance to help contribute to the fundraising including Phi Sigma Sigma, Phi Sigma Kappa, and Theta Phi Alpha. ZTA showed their dedication and spirit by using pink volleyballs in honor of their philanthropy.

President of ZTA Jen Cooley stated, “Last year we were happy to donate over $5000 to the Susan G. Komen Foundation and this fundraiser will help add to the donations this year.”

John Cascone, Director of Intramurals and Recreation, helped set up and supervise the event. Many students came out to support Zeta Tau Alpha and Sigma Pi. Junior Chrissy Murray of ZTA stated, “This is a great turn out for our first time hosting the event. We are extremely appreciative to all those who came out to show their support today and would like to invite everyone to keep participating in the up coming years.”

During the games, teams played elimination rounds, having to win two of three games before moving on in the tournament. Each game was played to the score of twenty-one and a team must win by two points. The teams were co-ed and asked to maintain good sportsmanship and keep spiking to a minimum.

All of the teams played with integrity and were all there to have a good time and to show their support for a good cause. Junior Alex Allman participated in the event saying that, “I had a lot of fun, and I would gladly take part in this event next year.” In addition, Caroline Silva of Phi Sigma Sigma stated, “I am really glad to have been a part of this fundraiser. I feel it is important for different organizations to support each other on campus.”

Pizza and refreshments were served for all participants until the games concluded around 7:30 p.m. Team “Travis” won the tournament collecting a $60 cash prize.

ZTA continued their efforts to breast cancer awareness by traveling to the Jets vs. Giants game on Sunday, October 7, at Giants Stadium. The sisters walked around before the game with breast cancer survivors. During their time at Giants Stadium the sisters passed out “shower cards” which are cards in the shape of the signature breast cancer ribbon with facts on the back about breast cancer. In addition the sisters sold breast cancer items such as t-shirts, hats, ribbons and magnets to the tailgaters, again donating all of the proceeds to their philanthropy.

ZTA and Sigma Pi have put forth great efforts in supporting the nation-wide campaign for breast cancer awareness that goes on during the month of October.
Dear Monmouth University Students:

As we get ready to welcome friends and alumni back for our Rock 'n Roll Homecoming weekend, we hope that you will make time to attend the annual Pep Rally that will be held in Boylan Gym on Friday, October 12 at 4:00 p.m. As part of this year’s Pep Rally, students will have an opportunity to win a free semester’s worth of books from the MU Bookstore along with a number of other giveaways. Don’t miss the annual Homecoming Parade that will begin in parking lot 25 at 1:45 p.m. Furthermore, we look forward to seeing you at the big game as the mighty Hawks take on Wagner University Saturday, October 13. Kickoff is at 1:00 p.m.

The Monmouth University Police Department would also like to remind everyone who is driving to the game to pay particular attention to the no parking signs on the side streets in West Long Branch. The University has also been informed that the West Long Branch Police Department will issue tickets to anyone who attempts to park their vehicle on Larchwood Avenue.

Students, clubs and/or organizations who plan to set up a tailgating spot had until Monday, October 8, 2007 to submit the Tailgating Reservation Form and the $150.00 refundable deposit to SGA. Those groups are currently in the process of meeting with members of the Homecoming Committee to discuss all of this year’s rules.

Even though you and/or your friends may not sponsor a tailgating spot, there is a good chance that you will stop by the student tailgating area to visit friends who are. If so, we ask that you take a few minutes to review the following Homecoming information and guidelines for 2007.

• Student tailgating will take place in parking lot 25-A (behind Boylan Gym) which will be fenced and have 2 entrance/exit points.

• All students/guests, regardless of age, are welcomed at the "student designated tailgate area" but must have a valid photo ID to get in. Only those 21 and over can consume alcohol. Students/guests not providing a photo ID will not be allowed to enter the area.

• Only the students/groups that have registered for a tailgating spot may bring alcohol in lot 25-A.

• Bags, backpacks, large purses or similar items are not permitted in lot 25-A.

• For safety reasons, pets and animals are not permitted.

• SGA has contracted a FREE cab service on game day between 1:00 p.m. and 5:30 p.m that will take students/guests back to their local address in the event someone is unable to safely and legally operate their car.

• Students and guests will also be able to access a variety of FREE food and non-alcoholic beverages which are being sponsored by ARA-Mark, SGA, Pepsi and the Office of Substance Awareness. For the safety of the students/guests, vehicles will not be permitted into parking lot 25-A after 11:00 am on October 13, 2007.

Should part of your Homecoming weekend involve the consumption of alcohol we ask that you do it in a safe, legal and responsible manner. It is possible to enjoy the wine like the French do, use common sense, and still enjoy all that Homecoming has to offer.

If you live off-campus and are planning to invite friends over or host a party during Homecoming weekend, please be careful and observe the laws as they pertain to quality of life issues (excessive noise, trash, etc.) and the use and consumption of alcohol. If your off-campus gathering is drawing the attention of your neighbors, don’t be surprised if the police show up.

Please be safe, be smart, have fun during Homecoming and GO HAWKS!

Sincerely,

2007 Homecoming Committee

A Haunting Interactive Experience!

THE CHARLATAN’S SEANCE

Created and Performed by Todd Robbins

October 10, 2007

THE UNIVERSITY NEWS

The The Outlook

3

Student Government News

SGA Minutes (From Previous Weeks)

From the date of 10/3:

1. Global Service Project, Constution Change Approved: (18-0), 1 Abstention

2. Voices for Choice, New Club Proposal Approved: (19-0)

3. Tabled Nicole Stevens’ Resolution creating incentives for registering off-campus parties with school administration.

Next Agenda (For Today)

For today, Wed. 10/10, 2:30pm 3rd floor Student Center

1. No meeting – SGA will be attending the Founders Day Convocation.

Anyone with concerns about the campus or those interested in Student Government please stop by at the general assembly meetings. Meetings are every Wednesday at 2:30pm on the 3rd floor of the Student Center.
Homecoming 2007 to Boast a Musical Theme

JACQUELINE KOLESKO
EDITOR IN CHIEF

Rock’n’Roll will sound throughout campus as the 2007 Homecoming celebration begins this week. The newly named Homecoming Week was developed by the Homecoming Committee. “We throw out a bunch of different ideas, we try to replicate a theme we’ve had in the past four years,” said Vaughn Clay, Director of Student Development, Com- munity Services.

He said once the choices were compiled a survey was sent out to students and they selected the theme of their choice to use for the annual event.

Clay said that he likes this year’s Rock’n’Roll theme because “there’s enough where students can be really creative when it comes to building floats for the parade. We are hoping with the groups that build the floats that they will be able to incorporate some fun Rock’n’Roll theme ideas into what they are going to do,” he said.

“I have wanted to make Homecoming more festive, because in the past I do not think we have done much better than the tailgating aspect. Therefore, we tried to make it more of a Spirit Week,” said Vaughn Clay, Executive Director of Student Government Association and a junior public relations and journalism major.

Such activities that were included in the week long celebration included Tuesday’s “Wear Your Favorite Hand Tee Shirt”; Wednesday celebrates the University’s Founder’s Day and the Student Activities Board is hosting an acoustic musician; Thursday is Blue and White Day; Friday is the Pep Rally at Boylan Gym; Saturday is the Homecoming pa- rade and football game.

Claired said that this year the Pep Rally will occur earlier than it has in past years. “We are doing it earlier because we have always tried to tie it into the bonfire, but we have always had such poor luck with weather,” he noted.

In addition to the events, Klaus said that for students who were bringing the Blue and White spirit across campus. “This year we do not want to have the bonfire white as much as we could. There are 30 blue and 30 white bows tied around trees, 21 flags hanging on the front of the Monmouth University and the entrance of the commuter lot and lots of signs and posters,” she de- scribed.

A new aspect of Homecoming this year, said Klaus, is a large giveaway for the students. “The MU Bookstore was willing to donate money for some books, which is $500 credit for books only,” Those who attend the Pep Rally on Friday will have an opportuni- ty to put their name into the drawing and the winner will be determined during halftime of Saturday’s foot- ball game.

Klaus added that this year there are more giveaways and prizes than years past. “For example, we have Rock’n’Roll tee shirts, Monmouth University drink containers, and other student activities as well as free Monmouth items will be given away at the Pep Rally,” she added.

The biggest change to this year’s Homecoming celebration, said Clay, is that the Student Government Association recognized the biggest issues that is students are going to have to have photo ID to enter the festivities. “We will be wrist-banding people who are 21 and older.” He said that it is 18 to 20 years old and stressed that if students do not have proper identification they will not be able to enter.

“We are looking to try to do this year’s Homecoming to make Homecoming a positive expe- rience as well as a safe experience,” said Clay. The biggest change to this year’s Homecoming celebration, said Clay, is that the Student Government Association recognized the biggest issues that is students are going to have to have photo ID to enter the festivities. “We will be wrist-banding people who are 21 and older.” He said that it is 18 to 20 years old and stressed that if students do not have proper identification they will not be able to enter.

“We are looking to try to do this year’s Homecoming to make Homecoming a positive expe- rience as well as a safe experience,” said Clay. The biggest change to this year’s Homecoming celebration, said Clay, is that the Student Government Association recognized the biggest issues that is students are going to have to have photo ID to enter the festivities. “We will be wrist-banding people who are 21 and older.” He said that it is 18 to 20 years old and stressed that if students do not have proper identification they will not be able to enter.

“We are looking to try to do this year’s Homecoming to make Homecoming a positive expe- rience as well as a safe experience,” said Clay. The biggest change to this year’s Homecoming celebration, said Clay, is that the Student Government Association recognized the biggest issues that is students are going to have to have photo ID to enter the festivities. “We will be wrist-banding people who are 21 and older.” He said that it is 18 to 20 years old and stressed that if students do not have proper identification they will not be able to enter.

“We are looking to try to do this year’s Homecoming to make Homecoming a positive expe- rience as well as a safe experience,” said Clay. The biggest change to this year’s Homecoming celebration, said Clay, is that the Student Government Association recognized the biggest issues that is students are going to have to have photo ID to enter the festivities. “We will be wrist-banding people who are 21 and older.” He said that it is 18 to 20 years old and stressed that if students do not have proper identification they will not be able to enter.

“We are looking to try to do this year’s Homecoming to make Homecoming a positive expe- rience as well as a safe experience,” said Clay. The biggest change to this year’s Homecoming celebration, said Clay, is that the Student Government Association recognized the biggest issues that is students are going to have to have photo ID to enter the festivities. “We will be wrist-banding people who are 21 and older.” He said that it is 18 to 20 years old and stressed that if students do not have proper identification they will not be able to enter.

“We are looking to try to do this year’s Homecoming to make Homecoming a positive expe- rience as well as a safe experience,” said Clay. The biggest change to this year’s Homecoming celebration, said Clay, is that the Student Government Association recognized the biggest issues that is students are going to have to have photo ID to enter the festivities. “We will be wrist-banding people who are 21 and older.” He said that it is 18 to 20 years old and stressed that if students do not have proper identification they will not be able to enter.

“We are looking to try to do this year’s Homecoming to make Homecoming a positive expe- rience as well as a safe experience,” said Clay. The biggest change to this year’s Homecoming celebration, said Clay, is that the Student Government Association recognized the biggest issues that is students are going to have to have photo ID to enter the festivities. “We will be wrist-banding people who are 21 and older.” He said that it is 18 to 20 years old and stressed that if students do not have proper identification they will not be able to enter.

“We are looking to try to do this year’s Homecoming to make Homecoming a positive expe- rience as well as a safe experience,” said Clay. The biggest change to this year’s Homecoming celebration, said Clay, is that the Student Government Association recognized the biggest issues that is students are going to have to have photo ID to enter the festivities. “We will be wrist-banding people who are 21 and older.” He said that it is 18 to 20 years old and stressed that if students do not have proper identification they will not be able to enter.

“We are looking to try to do this year’s Homecoming to make Homecoming a positive expe- rience as well as a safe experience,” said Clay. The biggest change to this year’s Homecoming celebration, said Clay, is that the Student Government Association recognized the biggest issues that is students are going to have to have photo ID to enter the festivities. “We will be wrist-banding people who are 21 and older.” He said that it is 18 to 20 years old and stressed that if students do not have proper identification they will not be able to enter.

“We are looking to try to do this year’s Homecoming to make Homecoming a positive expe- rience as well as a safe experience,” said Clay. The biggest change to this year’s Homecoming celebration, said Clay, is that the Student Government Association recognized the biggest issues that is students are going to have to have photo ID to enter the festivities. “We will be wrist-banding people who are 21 and older.” He said that it is 18 to 20 years old and stressed that if students do not have proper identification they will not be able to enter.

“We are looking to try to do this year’s Homecoming to make Homecoming a positive expe- rience as well as a safe experience,” said Clay. The biggest change to this year’s Homecoming celebration, said Clay, is that the Student Government Association recognized the biggest issues that is students are going to have to have photo ID to enter the festivities. “We will be wrist-banding people who are 21 and older.” He said that it is 18 to 20 years old and stressed that if students do not have proper identification they will not be able to enter.
Important Notice Regarding WebAdvisor Upgrade

On Monday, October 15, 2007, WEBfaculty, WEBstudent and WebAdvisor for Employees will be upgraded to WebAdvisor 3.0. The upgraded version of WebAdvisor will require that you log in before you see your menu.

Step 1:
Click Either Log In Button

Step 2:
Enter User ID and Password

Step 3:
Select a Menu Option

Please note: only those menu options that you have access to will be displayed. All options that you had on the previous version of WebAdvisor will remain.

Should you have any difficulty, please call the Help Desk at ext. 4357(HELP) or 732-923-HELP or email helpdesk@monmouth.edu
There are many lessons that being a fan of a sports team can teach you, lessons about life. Dedication to anything, whether it is a team, organization, or activity, requires a certain investment of time and effort. People criticizing what I have invested so much of myself into without having a proper argument for their comments angers me beyond belief.

As a die-hard New York Giants fan, I face jeers from Jets, Eagles, Cowboys, and Redskins fans (to name a few teams). I have no problem getting into a debate about football teams and players with people who understand and appreciate the game as much as I do, regardless of the team they support.

Nothing irritates me more than people who either know nothing about football, or hate football and comment about their team. If someone is not a Giants fan, I won’t question them for that. However, if someone is not a Giants fan and is a casual fan that follows a team as closely as I follow the Giants, I will question them for that. If they know who the back up quarterback of that team is? Do you even know who the quarterback is? If they say something along the lines of “How about the Giants last night?” Generally I say something along the lines of, “Do you even know who the quarterback is?” If they do not, I make it a point to explain to them that if they actually knew something valid about the game, they would want to complain, comment, and spark a debate. Think carefully about what you are saying and who you are talking to. If they actually knew something about the game and had something valid to say about the game, I’d listen and admit defeat. Being that they do not, they better have a proper argument.

The same idea of understanding and appreciating the sport is also important to a dedicated fan. Fans know which referees ‘support’ their team, their team’s strengths and weaknesses. They have studied every player on the back of the team, they may know when their team loses and they are expected to leave the game. If someone is not a Giants fan and is a casual fan that follows the Giants, they will do. There are the casual fans that follow a team as closely as I follow the Giants. If someone is not a Giants fan and is a casual fan that follows the Giants, I will question them for that. If they know who the back up quarterback of that team is? Do you even know who the quarterback is? If they say something along the lines of “How about the Giants last night?” Generally I say something along the lines of, “Do you even know who the quarterback is?” If they do not, I make it a point to explain to them that if they actually knew something valid about the game, they would want to complain, comment, and spark a debate. Think carefully about what you are saying and who you are talking to. If they actually knew something about the game and had something valid to say about the game, I’d listen and admit defeat. Being that they do not, they better have a proper argument.

Overall, people have every right to complain, comment, and spark debates about anything. I do not want to say to people who complain, comment, or spark a debate: Think carefully about what you are saying and who you are talking to. If they actually knew something valid about the game, they would want to complain, comment, and spark a debate. Think carefully about what you are saying and who you are talking to. If they actually knew something about the game and had something valid to say about the game, I’d listen and admit defeat. Being that they do not, they better have a proper argument.

The Outlook provides the Monmouth University community with information concerning issues in and around the University while serving as a forum for expression of the ideas of its students. Contributions must be submitted (email outlook@monmouth.edu) by 12:00 p.m. Mondays to The Outlook office, 2nd Floor, room 260, Plangere Center. All copy must include the author’s full name and contact information. The Outlook accepts articles and graphic material from students, faculty and administrators, and reserves the right to edit or reject any material which they determine is not suitable for publication or its readers. Copy and advertising appearing in The Outlook do not necessarily reflect the views of Monmouth University or The Outlook.
It is clear that everyone has their own pet peeve. Whether it is nail biting when that person should use a file, foot tapping when they should just get up and get a tissue, and so on. Everyone has their own opinion, and what my pet peeve is may be something you do everyday. As a member of many clubs and organizations on campus, my biggest pet peeve is a talker. You all know what I mean. That person you hear saying, “Oh, Dane Cook should come to campus. They don’t listen to what we want!”

Needless to say, that person has never gone to a club meeting where plans the event or has brought their feelings up to people that have the authority to make a difference. They are simply a talker. You may have someone you know who is a talker, like a family member, roommate, or you yourself may be one.

I encourage you to get them or yourself out of your room and into a club meeting where your opinions can be heard. But until you do, stop talking about what you are being listened to. Everyone on campus, your opinion is needed and your thoughts are being listened to. However, students need to take the initiative to make it to that first club meeting.

Monmouth is a small community and clubs want to hear new, fresh ideas from people with strong opinions. As I said, get up and get out and join a club, or two, or three, but make sure that you are being heard by the right people, so you are not a talker!

A quiet roommate that still lives up the room.

A bright roommate that loves to illuminate biochemistry textbooks.

Present your valid college ID and get 10% off your purchase now through September 23, 2007*

Stop by the IKEA restaurant and have some meatballs and maybe even a Caesar salad. It’s more affordable than picking your fridge and having your roommate eat all of your food.

*Offer valid only at IKEA Hockessin, Elizabeth and Paramus. Offer not valid on the purchase of kitchens and appliances. Must be 18 years of age and present a valid college ID.
The Belle of the Bad-Day Ball

ERIN STATTEL  STAFF WRITER

If you believe all the headlines and news teasers on most websites and magazine covers, you probably think that Britney Spears is having the worst day, week, month, or even year, in the world. But is she really as bad off as everyone believes she is? I don’t think so.

Is there nothing else in this world that can top the calamities committed and experienced by Miss Spears? Uh, sure there are. While most gossip bloggers and YouTube fanatics are lamenting Spears’ sad predicaments and how bad she has it, I can think of a few worse scenarios for Miss Spears. Britney Spears could be a broke and homeless single mom living in a car and unable to feed her two children. But she isn’t. Instead, we see her constantly, thanks to the round the clock coverage from TMZ.com, leaving her luxurious Hollywood home in her Mercedes Benz, headed to a Carl’s Jr., or a Hollywood home in her Mercedes Benz, headed to a Carl’s Jr., or a Starbucks’ drive-thru with the youngsters in the backseat stuffing their faces with tater tots.

If things were really beyond crappy, she could have joined the military in a burst of patriotic joy, only to be called overseas to drive her hum-vee over an IED, killing her hum-vee over an IED, killing her hum-vee over an IED, killing her hum-vee over an IED, killing only to be called overseas to drive her hum-vee over an IED, killing only to be called overseas to drive her hum-vee over an IED, killing only to be called overseas to drive her hum-vee over an IED, killing only to be called overseas to drive her hum-vee over an IED, killing only to be called overseas to drive her hum-vee over an IED, killing only to be called overseas to drive her hum-vee over an IED, killing only to be called overseas to drive her hum-vee over an IED, killing only to be called overseas to drive her hum-vee over an IED, killing

While I hope Britney Spears has some better luck, I have to remind those around me that she isn’t living in some far-off troubled place with no finances to help her out whatsoever. In other words, she could have it a lot worse; most of us could have it a lot worse.

So, as the media plies Britney on 24/7 surveillance, with the stalkerazzi monitoring her every move, I plan to wish Spears well and tune in to something a little more important. Shouldn’t we all?
Beyond a shadow of a doubt, Iranian President Mahmoud Ahmadinejad is committed to his government’s policies. Insults are sometimes filled with what seems to be resentments or even the desire to malign the people. It can be argued, in fact, that those reasons present a good case for the right to speak should be heard. How better to form an opinion of someone than to see and hear them in actual, live form? My opponent’s piece last week opposed the idea of letting Ahmadinejad speak at Columbia even though he was invited by the University. Although he clearly outlined why the Iranian President is not an American citizen, my opponent never actually presented a case for why the right to speak should not be granted. In other words, “Mahmoud Ahmadinejad should not have been given a platform to speak.”

The argument against the Iranian President’s visit and forum at Columbia University is that Ahmadinejad said “I know not what course others may take; but as for me, I know what I mean to do.” This man should have been denied the right to do whatever he pleases with Israel; it does not show support for the country of Israel. It makes the people of Israel wonder, “Why is this man speaking on an American stage to American people and disregarding the minds and beliefs with ludicrous thoughts and ideas?” We must show our Israeli allies that we do not support letting people like Ahmadinejad speak at our universities. My opponent said that one person who came to this country. You are not the walls of a pre-school classroom, but are the walls of a university. Our founding fathers believed the people, it is never as radical as it looks. When people think of the First Amendment, and the First Amendment protects my right to free speech. Although my opponent said that one person to everyone. This man came to America hoping to spread his radical views to the American people. He had supporters present who listened to him and agreed with him. People like him have no business on a stage because they do not care about answering the American people’s questions; all they care about is spreading their views and interests and saying things that we don’t want to hear in our country. This man comes onto the stage and speaks to the people they believe is going so far as to threaten U.N. sanctions against the state, but how far is the U.S. and the world willing to go over this issue? Anyone who is on U.S. soil is naturally protected under several Constitutional amendments, but citizens of Myanmar are not the walls of a pre-school or nursery. It is to be assumed that the people within those walls are on some level independent at least in their thinking as well as intelligent. How can it be justified that by impeding the flow of free thought within such walls can we do anything better to equip and educate the students for the world beyond its boundaries? The answer is that it cannot and will not. In fact, it may do more harm than good to delay such people an opportunity to speak. We can watch and listen to someone who has such radical ideas, they will still be able to carry out their work, to the rangers on the subway or preaching from the park bench.

In my opinion, there exists no argument to oppose free speech, especially in the United States where we have seen how the freedom of speech is to be so important that it was put in the First Amendment to the Constitution. If Ahmadinejad was able to speak at Columbia, they reason is because he is evil. How can we be misguided when he was not a question and answer session and not play by the rules of the question and answer. We must show our Israeli allies that we do not support letting people like Ahmadinejad speak at our universities. My opponent said that one person to everyone. This man came to America hoping to spread his radical views to the American people. He had supporters present who listened to him and agreed with him. People like him have no business on a stage because they do not care about answering the American people’s questions; all they care about is spreading their views and interests and saying things that we don’t want to hear in our country. This man comes onto the stage and speaks to the people they believe is going so far as to threaten U.N. sanctions against the state, but how far is the U.S. and the world willing to go over this issue? Anyone who is on U.S. soil is naturally protected under several Constitutional amendments, but citizens of Myanmar are not the walls of a pre-school or nursery. It is to be assumed that the people within those walls are on some level independent at least in their thinking as well as intelligent. How can it be justified that by impeding the flow of free thought within such walls can we do anything better to equip and educate the students for the world beyond its boundaries? The answer is that it cannot and will not. In fact, it may do more harm than good to delay such people an opportunity to speak. We can watch and listen to someone who has such radical ideas, they will still be able to carry out their work, to the rangers on the subway or preaching from the park bench.

Rebuttal: Ahmadinejad is Necessary for Free Speech

When people think of the First Amendment and the idea of freedom of speech being executed, they think of people going out, saying “I know not what course others may take; but as for me, I know what I mean to do.” This man should have been denied the right to do whatever he pleases with Israel; it does not show support for the country of Israel. It makes the people of Israel wonder, “Why is this man speaking on an American stage to American people and disregarding the minds and beliefs with ludicrous thoughts and ideas?” We must show our Israeli allies that we do not support letting people like Ahmadinejad speak at our universities. My opponent said that one person to everyone. This man came to America hoping to spread his radical views to the American people. He had supporters present who listened to him and agreed with him. People like him have no business on a stage because they do not care about answering the American people’s questions; all they care about is spreading their views and interests and saying things that we don’t want to hear in our country. This man comes onto the stage and speaks to the people they believe is going so far as to threaten U.N. sanctions against the state, but how far is the U.S. and the world willing to go over this issue? Anyone who is on U.S. soil is naturally protected under several Constitutional amendments, but citizens of Myanmar are not the walls of a pre-school or nursery. It is to be assumed that the people within those walls are on some level independent at least in their thinking as well as intelligent. How can it be justified that by impeding the flow of free thought within such walls can we do anything better to equip and educate the students for the world beyond its boundaries? The answer is that it cannot and will not. In fact, it may do more harm than good to delay such people an opportunity to speak. We can watch and listen to someone who has such radical ideas, they will still be able to carry out their work, to the rangers on the subway or preaching from the park bench. By giving people the chance to see and hear them in actual, live form to state his ideas of hatred,” would not be so naïve or susceptible to influence. In closing, there exists no argument to oppose free speech, especially in the United States where we have seen how the freedom of speech is so important that it was put in the First Amendment to the Constitution.

The argument against the Iranian President’s visit and forum at Columbia University is that Ahmadinejad said “I know not what course others may take; but as for me, I know what I mean to do.” This man should have been denied the right to do whatever he pleases with Israel; it does not show support for the country of Israel. It makes the people of Israel wonder, “Why is this man speaking on an American stage to American people and disregarding the minds and beliefs with ludicrous thoughts and ideas?” We must show our Israeli allies that we do not support letting people like Ahmadinejad speak at our universities.

Political Quotes

“Everything we hear is an opinion, not a fact. Everything we see is a perspective, not the truth.” – Marcus Aurelius

“I know not what course others may take; but as for me, give me liberty, or give me death.” – Patrick Henry

“Instant advantage is not always lasting achievement; mere good intentions will not win victories, and the conditions and costs of undertakings must be considered and prepared for.” – Joshua L. Chamberlain, The Passing of the Armies
THIS WEEK OVERSEAS...

LESLIE WEINBERG
OVERSEAS CORRESPONDENT

This week has been a lot more relaxing than the previous couple have been (crazy right?). We got to unwind from Switzerland and are beginning to think about midterms, which are right around the corner. But that won’t last long since they start next week that we haven’t fully planned out either.

This past week was about taking in culture in all forms. It started on Wednesday when I went to a huge, beautiful art museum in the heart of Trafalgar Square called the National Gallery. They had original Monet, Van Gogh, Rembrandt and plenty of other fabulous artists. We heard rumors around school that there is this hill in the park nearby where you can view all of London. After doing a little exploring we found the hill and got to check out this fantastic view. You literally could see all of London and it was great. For future Londoners, it is called Primrose Hill and is only a 30 minute walk.

Belgium was never on the top of my ‘to go’ list but on a whim a bunch of us decided to go. We knew they had good chocolate, coffee, beer and waffles and decided to take it from there. The group included a girl from Suffolk University, Fairleigh Dickinson University and another MU student, who due to complications couldn’t come.

We arrived in Brussels early Friday morning, and we got it. Go screw the Belgian government and their influence and exploitation of Congo. The second part was called Tribulation 99 and was supposed to be about US invasion of Latin America and satirical conspiracy theories. It was definitely unlike anything I have ever seen and I am still a little confused by it. Nothing like going to a foreign country to see an American film.

The next day, we went on a day trip to Bruges and it was unlike any city I have seen so far. It was all cobblestone roads filled with horse drawn carriages and many bikers and motorists, magnificent parks, old brick buildings, windmills, canals and rolling hills. We explored this quaint little town and saw a beautiful cathedral with Michelangelo’s Madonna and Child, found some windmills and had world famous pancakes.

That night we met some really cool Australian girls staying in our hostel and went out with them for the night. They both took a year off between high school and Uni and have been backpacking Europe.

This is apparently a very common thing for Australians to do. They were 19 and have already been traveling for 6 months.

We went downtown and hung out with some locals at a club with a fantastic French jazz band. The amazing treats.

After about an hour of wandering and finally finding our hostel, we settled in, met our Canadian roomie, made dinner and headed off to the Cinema Nova. This was an independent movie theatre that played underground films.

I made the mistake of asking the staff if there were English subtitles to the film and got some funny looks when he replied that it was an English movie.

We had no idea what was playing, we just showed up at the theatre hoping for something interesting and we got it. Go me! anyway, the first 30 minute movie was about the CIA and German government and their influence and exploitation of Europe.

Discovery - The Financial Information Group Inc., makers of the Discovery suite of databases of financial intermediaries, is seeking ALL majors for a variety of part-time positions.

Part-Time Positions/Internships Available

Computer Programmer

Data Acquisition Associate

Lead Generation - Sales Intern

Candidates for Part-Time Positions must have strong interpersonal, organizational and time management skills. Each position will have certain qualification requirements based upon the job responsibilities.

Our company was founded by a Monmouth University graduate and currently employs many Monmouth graduates as well as current students. These positions are based in Shrewsbury, NJ. Flexible hours and hourly wage plus bonus opportunity for exceptional performance.

For immediate consideration, please submit your resume to jobs@discoverydatabase.com or fax to 732-530-6797.

Are you looking to gain valuable work experience before you graduate? College Students and Mental Health: Risks, Warning Signs and Resilience Keynote speaker Maureen Underwood, LCSW and Clinical Director of the Society for the Prevention of Teen Suicide, will address the mental health issues confronting college students today. A panel discussion and question and answer period will follow.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 17, 2007
1:00 PM, ANACON HALL A

REBECCA STAFFORD STUDENT CENTER

Refreshments will be served.

Agenda

12:45-1:00PM Registration
1:00-1:15PM Welcome
Dr. Joy Jackson, Dean of Advising and Academic Support Services
Dr. Martin Knopfler, Executive Director IEF Youth Services
Mary Anne Nagy, VP for Student Services
1:15-2:15PM Keynote: Maureen Underwood, LCSW
2:15-2:30PM Break
2:30-3:30PM Panel Discussion

Barbara Bottinick, AFSP NJ Chapter, Dave Tellen, AFSP NJ, and Stacy Hollingsworth, NAMI Rutgers

Sponsored by Counseling and Psychological Services in collaboration with IEF Youth Services

For special accommodations, contact Counseling and Psychological Services prior to the program at 732-571-7077.
Calling all equestrians and horse lovers! Did you know that Monmouth used to have an equestrian club? It was headed by advisor Lori Lichter. Now, she wants to bring it back to Monmouth.

The Equestrian Club in 1986 when it was first formed at Monmouth College.

"I advise undeclared sophomores, but that's only a small portion of my job," Lichter said. "I work with new students, when you walk into her office, you will see an array of photos containing her two children, horses, and dogs. The one object that caught my eye, though, was a certificate from the Intercollegiate Horse Show Association (IHS A) to register in tact the Intercollegiate Horse Show Association (IHS A) to register in the Intercollegiate Horse Show Association. Students had to get in touch with the Student Activities Board and contact the Intercollegiate Horse Show Association (IHS A) to register in 1987, when Monmouth was a part of it."

"I just always put the word out [about an equestrian club] so that it would be in the back of students' minds," Lichter said. "Finally they sent some students my way that were genuinely interested and the rest is history!"

The team did very well, competing in Region I against about 20 other colleges in the New Jersey and New York area.

"You didn't have to have experience to join," Lichter said. "We had students of all levels."

The equestrian club actually counted for a credit of physical education at the time. In a photo album Lichter has in her office of the equestrian team there is a roster for Physical Education, and listed on it is "basic horsemanship," which was the name of the course.

To get the club started, the students had to get in touch with the Student Activities Board and contact the Intercollegiate Horse Show Association (IHS A) to register in 1987 when the IHS A began.

"It was more difficult back then since we didn't have the internet to communicate with," Lichter said. "Actually, the students did most of the work, and I just advised and helped out." The really neat thing about the Equestrian Club was that the team was within the club, so you did not even necessarily have to ride a horse to be involved. If you liked horses or were an animal lover and could ride for some reason you were able to be with people who felt the same way about horses as you did.

The team used horses from Tall Oaks farm in Howell. This is where they had their practices with their instructor.

"It was so great, people used to come to admissions to ask where they could keep their horses! Those were the days!" Lichter said. There were about a dozen students in the club, with a captain and a co-captain.

"It was a good size," said Lichter. "Some riders had their own horses, and some would ride for points for the team and for their own individual points."

"Some students would move on out there who used to ride, already ride, or are maybe interested in riding or just horses in general! Spread the word about a possible equestrian club coming out again at Monmouth. You don't need to own your own horse, have any experience or prefer a certain discipline in riding; you just need to share your love of horses with other students!"

"I would love to get the club involved with volunteering for Special People United to Ride (SPUR)." Lichter said. "It's the Sunny Side Equestrian Center, and it's a really great place to volunteer." Lichter's son, Justin, is involved in the program.

"He doesn't have a lot of muscle mass, but the moment he sat on a horse he sat up so straight and perfect, and it continues on even to this day!" she said.

SPUR is a great non-profit organization that a possible future equestrian club could get involved with. Horseback riding can be very therapeutic, even if you're a volunteer.

If you are interested in starting up a club, Lori Lichter's office is located in the LCAC in the Rebecca Stafford Student Center. Spread the word if you know anyone who is interested!
The mtvU Woodie Awards will air on November 15, and last week I was able to interview some nominees. Justin Pierre from Motion City Soundtrack, James Righton of The Klaxons, James Mercer from The Shins, Porno Club, and RJD2.

The Woodies are for college students, so I asked Justin if he had any messages for college students. He said he was never good in college so it doesn’t seem right for him to give advice to people who are doing better than he did, but he did say this much, “Eat lots of leafy greens and, you know, try to focus on the task at hand and pray the last minute.”

Motion City Soundtrack is nominated for a “Best Video Woodie” and they are up against musicians such as Say Anything, TV on the Radio, RJD2, and Justice.

I spoke to James Righton next and I wondered how it felt being a Brit- ish band trying to break into the music world of the US. He said it is definitely a lot harder to gain American fans, but they are trying to start with the college crowd. “You know college radio and college students are kind of the pace makers and that’s where it always starts.”

Unfortunately The Klaxons will be on their European tour and they don’t think they will be able to make it to the ceremony, but they are nominated for a “Left Field Woodie.” Just before leav- ing he said, “Well I just hope we win because we know you’re in it to win it.”

It seems like a small awards show like the Woodies really means a lot to these indie bands. When asked which award they’d most like to receive, James Mercer said he just so was excited to be nominated because it’s such a cool award. “I mean the mtvU thing...” he said kind of exactly where you want to strike...it’s that period of time I think, going to a university where I really got deeply moved by music.

The mtvU Woodie Awards will air on November 15th.

What if you were on your hony- eymoon with your beautiful wife, but you were to vote for any other woman who you think is the woman of your dreams? This is what Eddie Cantrow (Ben Stiller) has to face: he meets the woman of his dreams on his honeymoon.

Eddie is a 40-year old San Fran- cisco sporting goods store owner who never married. His widowed father Doc (Jerry Stiller) and Doc’s cocky friend Mac are determined to find Eddie the right girl. Eddie starts to believe that he may never find love. One day he helps a woman named Lila (Lila规程) get injured. He’s instantly attracted to her. Six weeks later Eddie real- izes that he has found the perfect woman in Miranda, someone he sees spending the rest of his life with. Will Eddie remain commit- ted to Lila or follow his heart and be with Miranda?

There were many things I liked about your film... The Heartbreak Kid provides a good sense of hu- mor. There was a fair share of raunchy scenes that were not used in an obnoxious way but rather for humorous effect. One scene in- volves Lila urinating on Eddie in an attempt to get a jellyfish off his back. This is not your typical Ben Stiller movie. When most Stiller’s movies take off, they become very formulaic. He doesn’t play a goofy character like in the majority of his other films. Jerry Stiller, Ben’s real father plays Eddie’s wise guy father in the film.

One negative aspect about The Heartbreak Kid is that it has an all too familiar storyline. Moviegoers have seen variations of a man finding a girl and pretending to be in love. This made it somewhat predictable and0. Fortunately, the last five minutes of this film make it worth its nearly two hour running time because we get to see Eddie finally realize that Lila is the love of his life and that he has been in love with her all along.

Shedon’s Dog jumps to life with it’s opening track, “Pagan Angel and a Borrowed Car.” From here the listener is carried along almost dreamily through the next couple of tracks. When we arrive at “Cassowred,” Beam’s distorted vocals give the feeling of being suspended under water while he sings a lullaby.

His smooth, calming voice moves easily from one track to the next, never relinquishing control of the listener. As always, the con- cept of everlasting love persists throughout the album. “Resur- rection Fern” tells of the undying connection between lovers. The name comes from a plant that can survive long periods of drought by appearing brown and dead, only to spring back to life with the small- est droplets of water.

This speaks true to The Shepaa- d’s Dog album itself. Although this music may have sat forgot- ten in the back of our collective memory for centuries (perhaps even millennia), when Beam and his crew add only the smallest bit of life, it blooms in our mind more beautiful than ever before.
The Outlook

The Outlook

Entertainment

The Outlook

The Outlook

in the state. “The sound system is one of the best stages to play on at Starland and considers it to belong to them as they got to perform a particular performance was special to them.”

The Benjamins say that they were really into what their band did and they come to find that Sam and Dean were both of their parents were killed by a yellow-eyed demon who has killed numerous types of supernatural demons, the brothers tracked down their father only to lose him again. This incident only increases the resolve of the brothers who have been demon hunters almost their entire lives. When a yellow-eyed demon killed their mother, their father’s main goal was to become a hunter and kill that demon. As a result, Jeremy Luke, and Anthony Picone (left) and Ben DeGennaro (right) rocked the stage at Starland Ballroom on October 2 as the opening act for nation act, Lifehouse.

After encountering and slaying various types of supernatural demons, the brothers tracked down their father only to lose him again. This time it was for good. Their father, Jeffrey Dean Morgan, who had been killed by a yellow-eyed demon who has killed numerous types of supernatural demons. The brothers tracked down their father only to lose him again. This incident only increases the resolve of the brothers who have been demon hunters almost their entire lives. When a yellow-eyed demon killed their mother, their father’s main goal was to become a hunter and kill that demon. As a result, Jeremy Luke, and Anthony Picone (left) and Ben DeGennaro (right) rocked the stage at Starland Ballroom on October 2 as the opening act for nation act, Lifehouse.

After encountering and slaying various types of supernatural demons, the brothers tracked down their father only to lose him again. This incident only increases the resolve of the brothers who have been demon hunters almost their entire lives. When a yellow-eyed demon killed their mother, their father’s main goal was to become a hunter and kill that demon. As a result, Jeremy Luke, and Anthony Picone (left) and Ben DeGennaro (right) rocked the stage at Starland Ballroom on October 2 as the opening act for nation act, Lifehouse.

After encountering and slaying various types of supernatural demons, the brothers tracked down their father only to lose him again. This incident only increases the resolve of the brothers who have been demon hunters almost their entire lives. When a yellow-eyed demon killed their mother, their father’s main goal was to become a hunter and kill that demon. As a result, Jeremy Luke, and Anthony Picone (left) and Ben DeGennaro (right) rocked the stage at Starland Ballroom on October 2 as the opening act for nation act, Lifehouse.

After encountering and slaying various types of supernatural demons, the brothers tracked down their father only to lose him again. This incident only increases the resolve of the brothers who have been demon hunters almost their entire lives. When a yellow-eyed demon killed their mother, their father’s main goal was to become a hunter and kill that demon. As a result, Jeremy Luke, and Anthony Picone (left) and Ben DeGennaro (right) rocked the stage at Starland Ballroom on October 2 as the opening act for nation act, Lifehouse.

After encountering and slaying various types of supernatural demons, the brothers tracked down their father only to lose him again. This incident only increases the resolve of the brothers who have been demon hunters almost their entire lives. When a yellow-eyed demon killed their mother, their father’s main goal was to become a hunter and kill that demon. As a result, Jeremy Luke, and Anthony Picone (left) and Ben DeGennaro (right) rocked the stage at Starland Ballroom on October 2 as the opening act for nation act, Lifehouse.

After encountering and slaying various types of supernatural demons, the brothers tracked down their father only to lose him again. This incident only increases the resolve of the brothers who have been demon hunters almost their entire lives. When a yellow-eyed demon killed their mother, their father’s main goal was to become a hunter and kill that demon. As a result, Jeremy Luke, and Anthony Picone (left) and Ben DeGennaro (right) rocked the stage at Starland Ballroom on October 2 as the opening act for nation act, Lifehouse.

After encountering and slaying various types of supernatural demons, the brothers tracked down their father only to lose him again. This incident only increases the resolve of the brothers who have been demon hunters almost their entire lives. When a yellow-eyed demon killed their mother, their father’s main goal was to become a hunter and kill that demon. As a result, Jeremy Luke, and Anthony Picone (left) and Ben DeGennaro (right) rocked the stage at Starland Ballroom on October 2 as the opening act for nation act, Lifehouse.

After encountering and slaying various types of supernatural demons, the brothers tracked down their father only to lose him again. This incident only increases the resolve of the brothers who have been demon hunters almost their entire lives. When a yellow-eyed demon killed their mother, their father’s main goal was to become a hunter and kill that demon. As a result, Jeremy Luke, and Anthony Picone (left) and Ben DeGennaro (right) rocked the stage at Starland Ballroom on October 2 as the opening act for nation act, Lifehouse.

After encountering and slaying various types of supernatural demons, the brothers tracked down their father only to lose him again. This incident only increases the resolve of the brothers who have been demon hunters almost their entire lives. When a yellow-eyed demon killed their mother, their father’s main goal was to become a hunter and kill that demon. As a result, Jeremy Luke, and Anthony Picone (left) and Ben DeGennaro (right) rocked the stage at Starland Ballroom on October 2 as the opening act for nation act, Lifehouse.

After encountering and slaying various types of supernatural demons, the brothers tracked down their father only to lose him again. This incident only increases the resolve of the brothers who have been demon hunters almost their entire lives. When a yellow-eyed demon killed their mother, their father’s main goal was to become a hunter and kill that demon. As a result, Jeremy Luke, and Anthony Picone (left) and Ben DeGennaro (right) rocked the stage at Starland Ballroom on October 2 as the opening act for nation act, Lifehouse.

After encountering and slaying various types of supernatural demons, the brothers tracked down their father only to lose him again. This incident only increases the resolve of the brothers who have been demon hunters almost their entire lives. When a yellow-eyed demon killed their mother, their father’s main goal was to become a hunter and kill that demon. As a result, Jeremy Luke, and Anthony Picone (left) and Ben DeGennaro (right) rocked the stage at Starland Ballroom on October 2 as the opening act for nation act, Lifehouse.

After encountering and slaying various types of supernatural demons, the brothers tracked down their father only to lose him again. This incident only increases the resolve of the brothers who have been demon hunters almost their entire lives. When a yellow-eyed demon killed their mother, their father’s main goal was to become a hunter and kill that demon. As a result, Jeremy Luke, and Anthony Picone (left) and Ben DeGennaro (right) rocked the stage at Starland Ballroom on October 2 as the opening act for nation act, Lifehouse.

After encountering and slaying various types of supernatural demons, the brothers tracked down their father only to lose him again. This incident only increases the resolve of the brothers who have been demon hunters almost their entire lives. When a yellow-eyed demon killed their mother, their father’s main goal was to become a hunter and kill that demon. As a result, Jeremy Luke, and Anthony Picone (left) and Ben DeGennaro (right) rocked the stage at Starland Ballroom on October 2 as the opening act for nation act, Lifehouse.

After encountering and slaying various types of supernatural demons, the brothers tracked down their father only to lose him again. This incident only increases the resolve of the brothers who have been demon hunters almost their entire lives. When a yellow-eyed demon killed their mother, their father’s main goal was to become a hunter and kill that demon. As a result, Jeremy Luke, and Anthony Picone (left) and Ben DeGennaro (right) rocked the stage at Starland Ballroom on October 2 as the opening act for nation act, Lifehouse.

After encountering and slaying various types of supernatural demons, the brothers tracked down their father only to lose him again. This incident only increases the resolve of the brothers who have been demon hunters almost their entire lives. When a yellow-eyed demon killed their mother, their father’s main goal was to become a hunter and kill that demon. As a result, Jeremy Luke, and Anthony Picone (left) and Ben DeGennaro (right) rocked the stage at Starland Ballroom on October 2 as the opening act for nation act, Lifehouse.

After encountering and slaying various types of supernatural demons, the brothers tracked down their father only to lose him again. This incident only increases the resolve of the brothers who have been demon hunters almost their entire lives. When a yellow-eyed demon killed their mother, their father’s main goal was to become a hunter and kill that demon. As a result, Jeremy Luke, and Anthony Picone (left) and Ben DeGennaro (right) rocked the stage at Starland Ballroom on October 2 as the opening act for nation act, Lifehouse.
Unlimited Tanning
As low as 19.95
no session fees!

THE EXOTIC LOOK
of a pampered lifestyle.
Without the paparazzi.

Come experience our State-of-the-Art
Tanning & Spa Equipment!

255 Rt. 35 Eatontown, NJ
732.544.8267

Planet Beach
our solar system revolves around you

MYSTIC TAN
UV FREE TANNING TECHNOLOGY
A Mystic spray session:
• Delivers an even, customized application of tanning mist
• Uses Magnetan™ Technology
• Takes seconds
• Lasts 5-7 days
• Provides a deep, natural looking tan

www.planetbeach.com  For franchise info call 888.290.8266
Delta Phi Epsilon

fabulous!-you’re my savory! Thanks for always being there for me! uHipp and Aphrodite, I couldn’t thank you enough for taking me un- der your wings! You’re my angels! <3 always, Vogue! Congrats Alpha Pi! Love you big! <3 Jewels. I love that I came up with a new gangsta pose...mitten! Awesome time girls! Welcome Alpha Pi’s - dolce. I love you big <3 MoTo and VEGAS <3 you guys tons and love living with you <3 gigiZ. To my number one crew, sometimes all that makes me sick. Too bad our banner’s going up in the DPHE hallway tomar- row, chill VEGAS. Love always, MoTo. Congrats AP’s love Riley. TriniDy, you rock my world! – Aloha. Aloha I love you – maHalo – I love how scandalous we have become – Roxie. J’Adore Jewelz always and forever! Alpha Pi’s congrats, wish I would be in your spot again! HEIR- ESS <3 Congrats Alpha Pi & I love you big!!! <3 uToPi. Congratulations Alpha Pi’s Amazing time at the mixers! DaZZle- Go GIANTS! 12&6... um that’s not the score... hahah! Love You <3 cieLo. Great re- cruitment. Congrats Alpha Pi! Much love to my little & my other ½ yam giants... thanks cieLo for taking me. Xo DaZZle. To Perfect & aisha, I love our crazy house adventures so far! Thanks to Harmony, XatAav, sparkles for everything and the fun times after going out! I love u all - TriniDy xoxo Congrats Alpha Pi! First friend love our Jack’s experiences! LittleOne you’re my heart! HARMONI and Sparkles, cra- zy times so far love you girls, pigeon- we <3 Jeopardy and wheel for- ever! XatAav. Good luck everyone with Homecoming nominations and congrats new Alpha Pi’s love, VEGAS xooxo. Congratulations Alpha Pi, you made an amazing decision! Vogue, I love you and you know that. Anytime you need me I’m only two flights of stairs away! SunSet I love, that you get excited that I still put you on the greek page! I miss you <3. All of my Deppher’s are amazing, I don’t know what I’d do with out you girls! Bombshell Love <3 love always, fabulous/U Sigma Tau Gamma

What Up Monmouth, Happy October people, we hope everyone is geared up for homecoming! It’s gonna rock, we hope to see everyone out there. Sig Tau will be playing in the charity basketball event to support the Political Science Club’s effort to raise money in the name of Chris Cosgrove who died in service to his country last year. We hope to see everyone out there!

Well Monmouth the Sisters of Alpha Xi Delta have been very busy these past couple of weeks. With recruitment past us we welcome our Alpha Class. Congratulations girls we love you! The sisters have also held two Interest Parties for anyone who would like to come and meet the Sisters of AXiD. Both events were a great success and we would like to thank all the girls who came out to meet us! It was great meet- ing all of you. We hope you will continue to come to our events. We would also like to congratulate all the other chapters on their new members as well. We are looking forward to Homecoming and displaying our Rock & Roll themed float.

Sailing Club

Ahoy there mate! Check out the sailing team! YES, Monmouth has a sailing team. We are an intercol- legiate team and sail against teams up and down the east coast! We have a growing team and are always looking for more sailors. No experience is necessary to join! This is a great way to get involved and meet new people! MU Sailing is a club sport meaning that you can participate as much or as little as you like. What you put in is what you will get out! For more information please email MUSAILINGCOACH@aol.com

Rock the Vote

To whom it may concern,

On October 10, 2007 nearly 5,000 students will be asked to take a stand and play a role in choosing our next president.

The Public Relations Student Society of America, PRSSA, and the Political Science Club will be co- sponsoring a Rock the Vote barbeque and concert on Wednesday October 10 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Rebecca Stafford student center veranda. This event will include great food such as hot dogs and hamburgers, and all the soda you can drink along with a DJ from 12 p.m. to 2 p.m. There will be many tables set up where students will be asked to register to vote by PRSSA and the Political Science Club.

Rock the Vote empowers students to get involved in the political process by registering to vote. We will be informing and asking students to let their voices be heard on issues in their communities, states and nation. By registering to vote these students will be taking a stand, and saying I won’t let other people make decisions that effect my life.

This event is a great opportunity for students to pull together and prove that our vote counts. We hope that you will take the time to stop buy and enjoy the food and entertainment.

Please contact us to set up an interview.

Sincerely,
Shannon Monaco
Vice President – PRSSA
x077699@monmouth.edu

PRSSA

The time has come to take a stand and be heard! The Public Relations Student Society of America and the Political Science Club at Monmouth University will be co-sponsoring a Rock the Vote barbeque and concert on Wednesday October 10, 2007 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in front of the Rebecca Stafford Student Center. The event will give the opportunity for our student body of nearly 5,000 to register to vote with PRSSA and the Political Science Club. This event will include food and beverage along with a live DJ to help rock with us!

If you already a registered voter, show your support and pride of being a voting American and enjoy the live entertainment and food. Rock the Vote is a campaign which empowers the younger generation to let their voices be heard and stand up for what they believe in.

Rock the Vote inspires the youth of America to educate itself about the importance of voting to hopefully empower youth to take a stand. Do you know what issues move you? Is it education, job opportunities, war, or human rights? Come let your voice be heard by registering to vote or get others to register on October 10, 2007.

Pep Band

3rd Floor of the Student Center

Wednesday 10/10 8PM

and

Thursday 10/11 8PM
Considering a career in clinical research? MDS Pharma Services is seeking entry-level variable/part-time Clinical Conduct Associates for our Neptune, NJ research clinic.

As a Clinical Conduct Associate, you will monitor activities of study participants and respond to participant needs including handling human biological samples and recording data. Responsibilities also include taking vital signs, performing EKGs, height/weight, and monitoring meals.

This position requires a high school diploma or GED. We prefer post high school education in life sciences or medical training. You must be available to work early mornings, evenings, and weekends. We are looking for enthusiastic people who are willing to learn and who can commit to a minimum of 20 hours a week. Phlebotomy experience is a plus but not required.

Please apply on-line at www.mdsps.com

ROOMS FOR RENT!

$625 a month Utilities Included

Located next door to Woods Theater

West Long Branch

Please call:

732-642-9665

ATTENTION STUDENTS

Earn while you learn - $10 hr.

Pick your hours. Open 7 days a week.

Local Ocean office.

1-888-974-5627

Catholic Centre at Monmouth

Mass
Sundays at 7 p.m.
Eucharistic Adoration
Mondays 3-4 pm

Why Believe? Series
Wed., 7:30 PM
Praise and Worship
Wed., 7 PM

Java City Cafe
Halloween Party & Pump-kin Carving
Thurs., 10/25 @ 7:30 PM

All are welcome.

www.mucatholic.org

Watch for our special events during the semester!

FOOD ALWAYS SERVED!

Catholic Centre at Monmouth University,
16 Beechwood Avenue

Gate to our house is located in the rear corner of Lot 4, next to the Health Center.

Call us at 732-229-9300

Child Care needed in my home for infant twins. 3-4 Days a week. 6-7 hours per day beginning Dec. 1st.

Call Christine at:
732-542-2468 or 732-610-3035

Spring Break 2008
Sell Trips, Earn Cash and Go Free. Call for group discounts. Best Deals Guaranteed! Jamaica, Cancun, Acapulco, Bahamas S. Padre, and Florida.
1-800-648-4879

P/T job.
Great money, flexible hours, easy tasks. Possible long-term employment.
http://www.neumannassociates.com/jobs.cfm

HELP WANTED - Spoiled Pink & Antixx

Spoiled Pink and Antixx, 2 children's boutiques located within walking distance from campus are looking for P/T Cashiers/Sales help.

The hours are Sat. 9:30-5:00, flexible hours and no nights. We offer a competitive hourly rate.

A great employment offer that can extend into the summer. Walk-in app. accepted at 264 Norwood Ave.,

Deal or send resume/letter to pittibimi2@aol.com.
Check us out at www.pittibiminc.com.
Horoscopes

By Linda C. Black, Tribune Media Services

Today’s Birthday (Oct. 10)
You’re gaining confidence this year naturally, without even trying. Creativity is required, but amazingly little effort.

To get the advantage, check the day’s rating: 10 is the easiest day, 0 the most challenging.

Aries • (Mar. 21 - April 19) - Today is a 7
You’re busy with work you love. Your friends want to be involved. Everybody likes to do whatever you’re doing that looks like fun. The more, the merrier.

Taurus • (April 20 - May 20) - Today is a 7
Luckily for you, money’s coming in. Now, settle down and real it up. You can go shopping if you’re sure your common sense is working.

Gemini • (May 21 - June 21) - Today is an 8
See if anyone can tell you what anybody else said. They were all too busy, listening to themselves. If you took notes, you can teach them. You’re good at this.

Cancer • (June 22 - July 22) - Today is a 7
After a brief flurry of activity, there will be time to relax. Set up your hectic schedule so it works out that way.

Leo • (July 23 - Aug. 22) - Today is a 7
You’re gaining confidence naturally, without even trying. Creativity is required, but amazingly little effort.

Virgo • (Aug. 23 - Sept. 22) - Today is a 7
Study your financial situation. You’ll find many ways to spend and save. You can greatly increase your profits.

Libra • (Sept. 23 - Oct. 23) - Today is an 8
Don’t be slowed down by past difficulties. Try and try again. A door that was closed to you before is swinging wide open.

Scorpio • (Oct. 23 - Nov. 21) - Today is a 7
Keeping the costs under control has been your most recent challenge. You’ve done a pretty good job of that, so don’t worry about it. Besides, you’re about to find more money.

Sagittarius • (Nov. 22 - Dec. 21) Today is an 8
The hard part will be over soon. Tonight you can play with friends and tell them all your new stories. They’ll love ‘em.

Capricorn • (Dec. 22 - Jan. 19) - Today is a 6
You can actually gain a lot if you pass an upcoming test. You know the material, that’s not the problem. Practice being respectful to jerks.

Aquarius • (Jan. 20 - Feb. 18) Today is an 8
Friends help you understand a topic that’s been foreign up to now. Accept their gentle coaching, even if it means changing your mind.

Pisces • (Feb. 19 - Mar. 20) Today is a 6
Let the others argue. You take care of practical matters, such as paying the bills. When they’re done, they’ll have nothing. You’ll have more satisfaction.

© 2007 Tribune Media Services, Inc. All rights reserved.

Crossword

ACROSS
1. Mint, as money
5. Cogito _ sum
8. Go through an allowance
14. Square
15. King of a sort
16. Doll
17. College sports org.
18. Bracket shapes
19. Silly
22. Finished before
23. Sort of threat
24. Before, formerly
25. Hog haven
26. _-ulottes
27. Hit the slopes
27. Partner in crime, perhaps
31. Brought to you (by)
36. Writer Zola
37. Place of great activity
37. More modern
39. Iconodic literary work
40. First-strings
42. Enduring
44. Put up for sale
46. Prize money
47. Silver screen star
48. Existed
49. NRC forerunner
52. All the rage
55. Of the Far East
57. Painter’s tripod
58. Begin moving
59. Jason’s ship
60. Expunge
61. Jet
62. Panorama
63. Yente the
Turtle’s creator
64. Pre-owned
66. Fish story
8. Switch positions
9. Methodological discipline
10. Crime partner?
11 & others: Lat. 12. Square of three
13. Landowner’s paper
21. Queries
22. Moving vehicle
25. Passeover feast
26. Commn’s trait
27. Feled
28. The South of France
29 “Paper Lion”
30. Oscar winner
31. Counterfeit
32. Gyro bread
33. At an end
34. Drive back
38. Fixed
41. Interferes
43. Rocket cap
45. Diminutive dog
53. Very unusual
54. Scribble
55. “Miss”
56. Courtyards
57. Type of beaver?
58. Word before
59. Blue or bean
60. Tex. campus

Solutions to last week’s crossword

DOWN
1. Tippy vessel
2. Come to pass
3. Really ticked off
4. Approach
5. November event
6. The Hoosier
7. Poet
7. Precious metal
8. Switch positions
9. Methodological discipline
10. Crime partner?
11 & others: Lat.
12. Square of three
13. Landowner’s paper
21. Queries
22. Moving vehicle
25. Passeover feast
26. Commn’s trait
27. Feled
28. The South of France
29 “Paper Lion”
30. Oscar winner
31. Counterfeit
32. Gyro bread
33. At an end
34. Drive back
38. Fixed
41. Interferes
43. Rocket cap

© 2007 Tribune Media Services, Inc. All rights reserved.

MONMOUTH UNIVERSITY STUDENTS:
SUBMIT YOUR OWN COMICS!!

Outlook@Monmouth.edu

The Outlook

October 10, 2007

Comics N More

17

“Guys, quit it, or we’re all going to end up in sensitivity training!”

By William Wilson

Paul

 Brothers Watt

©2007 Harry Mass, Distributed by Tribune Media Services, Inc.

By Billy O’Keeffe

©2007 Tribune Media Services, Inc.
The SAB Pharmacy
Your Weekly Prescription For Fun

Comedian
Myq Kaplan

Wed Oct 17th
7:30pm
Java City

Pumpkin Painting Party
Sunday October 14th
11-2pm

sab@monmouth.edu
aim: sab4704
732-923-4704

Meetings Every
Thursday @ 4pm!!
HOMECOMING COURT ELECTIONS
MONDAY, OCTOBER 8 (12PM) - WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 10 (12PM)
VOTE ON WEBSHOP
COMPUTERS AVAILABLE IN THE STUDENT CENTER/DINING HALL

ROCK ‘N ROLL DAY
WEAR YOUR FAVORITE BAND T-SHIRT
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 9

SAB PRESENTS ACOUSTIC MUSICIAN
DAVE TAMKIN
UNDERGROUND 8PM
WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 10

MONMOUTH SPIRIT DAY
WEAR BLUE AND WHITE
THURSDAY, OCTOBER 11

HOMECOMING PEP RALLY
FRIDAY, OCTOBER 12
BOYLAN GYM @ 4PM
MEET THE TEAM, THE HOMECOMING COURT & ENTER TO WIN
FREE SEMESTER OF BOOKS
 Courtesy of MU Bookstore

HOMECOMING PARADE
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 13 @ 11:45 AM
COME OUT AND SEE ALL THE CLUBS/ORGANIZATION’S
ROCK ‘N ROLL FLOATS

HOMECOMING FOOTBALL GAME
MONMOUTH HAWKS vs WAGNER SEAHAWKS
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 13 @ 1PM
KESSLER FIELD
HOMECOMING KING AND QUEEN AS WELL AS THE WINNER OF
PEP RALLY GIVEAWAY ANNOUNCED AT HALFTIME

COME OUT AND JOIN OUR HOMECOMING TRADITION AT MONMOUTH UNIVERSITY
What is your favorite Fall activity?

COMPILED BY: SARAH ALYSE JAMIESON

Brian sophomore
"Flag football and tea bagging"

Dante sophomore
"Homecoming"

Chris sophomore
"Soccer"

Meaghan sophomore
"I love to run outside in the Fall weather!"

Heather sophomore
"Decorating and preparing for Halloween"

Kaitlin sophomore
"I love to watch the EAGLES play!"

Jen junior
"I love to watch the EAGLES play!"

Narissa sophomore
"Halloween activities!"

Michelle sophomore
"Alpha Xi Delta activities and dancing!"

Tam sophomore
"Fishing!"

Narissa sophomore
"Pumpkin picking!"

Campus Events This Week

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 10
Rock the Vote Campaign! • All Day • Student Center Patio
Founder’s Day Convocation • 2:15 PM • Pollak Theatre
Choosing a Major Workshop • 3:00 PM • RSSC 202A
Texas Hold’em Tournament • 7:30 PM • RSSC Cafeteria
Dave Yarmkin (Acoustic Songwriter) • 8:00 PM • The Underground

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 11
National Coming Out Day - Look for Details!

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 12
Homecoming Floatbuilding Begins • 12:00 PM • Lot 25 A
Field Hockey vs. St. Francis (PA) • 3:00 PM
Men’s Soccer vs. Long Island University • 3:00 PM • Great Lawn
Homecoming Pep Rally • 4:00 PM • Boylan Gymnasium

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 13
Homecoming Parade • 11:00 AM • RSSC Parking Lot
Homecoming Football vs. Wagner College • 1:00 PM • Kessler Field
Mariza • Film - 7:00 PM; Show - 8:00 PM • Pollak Theatre

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 14
Softball vs. Brookdale & Burlington • 10:00 AM • Softball Field
Field Hockey vs. Lock Haven University • 1:00 PM
Men’s Soccer vs. St. Francis College (NY) • 1:00 PM • Great Lawn

MONDAY, OCTOBER 15
Cardiovascular Fitness Testing • 8:00 AM • Fitness Center
Responsible Drinking Pledge Day • 12:00 - 4:00 PM • RSSC Lobby
Philosophy Philm Phorum - Miller’s Crossing • 7:25 PM • Turrell

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 16
Alcohol Screening Day • 12:00 - 4:00 PM • Health Center
Take Back the Night • 7:30 PM • Wilson Auditorium
Java City Theology: Exorcism • 7:30 PM • Java City Cafe

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 17
College Student and Mental Health • 12:30 - 4:30 PM • Anacon Hall A
Comedian Mya Kaplan • 7:30 PM • Java City Cafe

To have your campus-wide events included, send an e-mail to activities@monmouth.edu.

We do not list club or program meeting times in this schedule.

MORE INVOLVED IN CAMPUS ACTIVITIES!!
732-571-3586 • 2nd Floor, Rebecca Stafford Student Center • activities@monmouth.edu
Hawks Capture First Victory of the Season

Led By Sinisi, Monmouth Thrashes Sacred Heart 49-8

By ALEXANDER TRAICOLE

STAFF WRITER

Running Back David Sinisi had three scores, including a school record-tying 99 yard scamper as the Monmouth football team notched its first win of the season. A 49-8 victory run, the first for the Pioneers of Sacred Heart. After four consecutive losses, the Hawks took their frustrations out on a hapless Sacred Heart defense, and were able to score at will, while the defense completely immobilized the Pioneer attack.

The Pioneers got the ball first, and after a big tackle-for-loss by Chris Reed forced a three-and-out, Sacred Heart was forced to punt. But the Hawks had other plans, as Derek Bischoff broke through the line and blocked the punt. Ayo Faase scooped up the ball, and took it the other way for six. From there, it was all Hawk.

After forcing another three and out, the Monmouth offense got a chance to work. Quarterback Brett Burke and Bobby Giles took turns rushing the ball for five on third-and-four. Then it was time for Sinisi to shine. After runs of five and eight yards, Sinisi ripped off a 41 yard dash down the sideline, and ran it in for the touchdown. For the first time in a month as they ran straight up the middle for a safety. They were able to move the ball all the way to the Monmouth one. But a fumble by Tyler McKeon was recovered by the linebacker Larry Hudson.

On the next play, history was made. Sinisi took the handoff and ran straight up the middle for a 99 yard touchdown run, tying Sinisi for a school record, set by Jim Varick in 1994, also against Sacred Heart. The play was not only good, and the Hawks took a 35-2 lead.

Again, Sacred Heart attempted to put together a drive, but once again it ended in a turnover. It was a fumble on a third down, this time, it was Chris Darmo from the one, and the Monmouth defense took over. Again, Sacred Heart threatened to score. After a 73 yard run by running back Jason Payne moved the ball to the Hawks three, the Pioneers were unable to punch it in on four plays. The Monmouth offense took over after the turnover on downs on their own 18.

Pinned deep in their own end, the Pioneers turned the ball over again. This time, it was Evin Jones who put the ball on the ground, on the Hawks recovered. Waiting no time, Burke found John Nalbone for a 40 yard point. 43-2. The Pioneers would finally cross the goal line in the fourth quarter, as Brian Friedman punched it in from four yards out. The two-point conversion was no good, and the Hawk lead was now 42-8.

Ryan Surukpa would cap the scoring with a three yard plunge, giving the Hawks a 49-2 advantage, as he and red shirt freshman quarterback Ryan Felson, who saw his first action of the year, took turns rushing the ball for the Hawks on the drive.

Sinisi finished with a career high 200 yards rushing on 17 carries, 183 of them came in the first half. Giles also finished with 119 yards on 16 carries. For Burke, it was his first win as a starter for the Hawks. He finished an efficient 15-for-19, for 245 yards and two touchdowns, while Yudin lead the receiving core with three catches and a career-high 73 yards.

The 49 points the Hawks scored on the Pioneers is the most Sacred Heart has ever allowed to an NEC opponent. It was also the most points the Hawks have scored since their 54-20 victory against St. Francis (PA) last season.

The Hawks, now at 1-4, will look to build on their victory when they return to West Long Branch for the first time in a month as they take on the Wagner Seahawks on Homecoming.

PRESS RELEASE

A pair of Monmouth University running backs earned Northeast Conference Weekly football accolades for their performances against Sacred Heart, league officials announced Monday afternoon.

Monmouth University redshirt sophomore running back David Sinisi was named NEC Offensive Player of the Week after scoring three touchdowns and adding two touchdowns in Monmouth’s 49-8 win over Sacred Heart on Saturday. Sinisi became the third player in MU history to have a 200-yard rushing performance after earning 200 yards in 17 carries, for a whopping 11.8 yards per carry while tallying a career-best three touchdowns.

The former Offensive Rookie of the Year tied Jim Varick’s Blue & White record for longest TD run when he took an inside handoff 99 yards with just under two minutes to play in the second quarter, giving Monmouth a 35-2 lead at halftime. Sinisi’s 41 yard touchdown run was his fifth consecutive game with a touchdown streak to 17 games, the longest in any level of Division I. He also had two catches for 23 yards against the Pioneers.

“Dave had an outstanding day against Sacred Heart, and he had several impressive runs on his way to a 200-yard day,” said Monmouth head coach Kevin Callahan.

Another Hawk running back, redshirt-freshman Bobby Giles, was named NEC Rookie of the Week after recording his first 100-yard rushing performance. Giles had 119 yards on 16 carries for an average of 7.4 yards per carry. Giles’ previous best day came against Robert Morris when he had six rushes for 25 yards. He also had one reception for 17 yards, giving him 136 yards of total offense. Giles gained positive yardage on every carry, picking up a long of 21 yards.

“Dave and Bobby have an opportunity to show what they can do in a game situation, when he has the ball in his hands,” said Callahan. “He is a talented back, and he is a great compliment to Dave.”

The game marked just the third time in school history that MU had two players rush for 100 yards in the same game. The first since Mike Trombetta and Chad Smith did it in 1999 against St. Francis (Pa.).

Coming into the game Sacred Heart was first in the NEC and 23rd in the nation in rush defense, allowing just 107 yards per game on the ground.

Game Statistics

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>MU</th>
<th>SHU</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>First Downs.....</td>
<td>26</td>
<td>14</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Rushing..........</td>
<td>16</td>
<td>9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Passing..........</td>
<td>9</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Penalty..........</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Net Yards Rushing</td>
<td>331</td>
<td>189</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Rushing Attempts</td>
<td>52</td>
<td>34</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Average Per Rush</td>
<td>6.4</td>
<td>5.6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Rushing Touchdowns</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Yards Rushed</td>
<td>375</td>
<td>207</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Loss Rushing.....</td>
<td>44</td>
<td>18</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Net Yards Passing</td>
<td>262</td>
<td>285</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Completions-Attempts-Int...</td>
<td>17-22-0</td>
<td>13-24-1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Average Per Attempt</td>
<td>11.9</td>
<td>13.5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Average Per Completion</td>
<td>15.4</td>
<td>6.5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Average Per Play</td>
<td>8.0</td>
<td>4.7</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fumbles: Number-Lost</td>
<td>2-1</td>
<td>2-2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Penalties: Number-Yards</td>
<td>9-71</td>
<td>3-35</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Punts-Yards</td>
<td>1-36</td>
<td>5-161</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Average Yards Per Punt</td>
<td>36.0</td>
<td>32.2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Net Yards Per Punt</td>
<td>36.0</td>
<td>32.2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Inside 20---------</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kickoffs-Yards</td>
<td>9-525</td>
<td>2-107</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Average Yards Per Kickoff</td>
<td>58.3</td>
<td>53.5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Net Yards Per Kickoff</td>
<td>39.8</td>
<td>29.0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Punt returns: Number-Yards-TD</td>
<td>1-28-1</td>
<td>0-0-0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Average Per Return</td>
<td>28.0</td>
<td>0.0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kickoff returns: Number-Yds-TD</td>
<td>2-49-0</td>
<td>9-167-0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Average Per Return</td>
<td>24.5</td>
<td>18.6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Interceptions: Number-Yds-TD..</td>
<td>1-10-0</td>
<td>0-0-0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Possession Time</td>
<td>34:26</td>
<td>25:34</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1st Quarter....</td>
<td>8:43</td>
<td>6:17</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2nd Quarter.....</td>
<td>6:56</td>
<td>8:04</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3rd Quarter.....</td>
<td>9:22</td>
<td>5:38</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4th Quarter.....</td>
<td>9:25</td>
<td>5:35</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Third-Down Conversions..</td>
<td>10 of 15</td>
<td>3 of 13</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fourth-Down Conversions...</td>
<td>3 of 4</td>
<td>2 of 4</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
With a flurry of offensive firepower, the Hawks improved to 6-2-2 on the season scoring a combined seven goals in two victories. Last Tuesday, the Blue and White defeated NJIT 3-0, and then returned four days later to rout Mount St. Mary’s 4-0.

MU came to life on the offensive end against the Highlanders at home on The Great Lawn. The squad tallied two goals in the first ten minutes of the match to put the home team recorded its third shut out and found freshman Chase get free of the defense on the end line. The score was Barbieri’s second of the season and made him the team’s leader in goals.

At 9:26 mark, defender An-dre Barbieri tallied his sixth shut out and found freshman Bryan Meredith in corners. Freshman Bryan Meredith made his first start in goal a memorable one. The Hawks goalkeeper tallied his first shut out and victory of his career. It was not so easy for the opposing goalie who was forced to make four saves.

In the second half the Hawks increased their lead to 3-0 with a goal from senior forward Tom Gray. Gray was able to control an attempted clearance off a Monmouth cross into the box, which he calmly slotted into the upper right corner of the net. The score was Gray’s fifth of the year and made him the team’s leader in goals.

The home team had a 14-2 ad-vantage in shots and a 10-2 lead in corners. Freshman Bryan Meredith made his first start in goal a memorable one. The Hawks keeper tallied his first shut out and victory of his career. It was not so easy for the opposing goalie who was forced to make four saves.

On Saturday, the Blue and White returned to action, welcoming conference foe Mount St. Mary’s to The Great Lawn. The contest was the opening game of the NEC season for both teams. Ryan Kinne put the Hawks on the board with his first goal of the season in the 24th minute off a pass from Wilson. Wilson dribbled the ball along the end line and hit Kinne inside the box for the one timer. Goalie Chad Powers was powerless to stop the quick shot.

Mount St. Mary’s tallied its first shut out and found freshman Will Pike in goal. It was freshman Drew Van Bargen who hit an open Rob LaRocca. LaRocca was able to control the ball and with a single touch, beating the goalkeeper. The goal was LaRocca’s second of the year and Bargen’s first collegiate point. In the second half Wilson added his second assist of the game with a cross to John Castro who beat back up goalie Will Pike.

“This is a good way to start the conference season,” commented head coach Robert McComar. “It’s always great to get a win, but we realize that we have a long road ahead of us and a lot of work to do, in order to achieve our goals.”

The home squad held a 14-2 ad-vantage in shots on goal and had a 6-1 edge in corner kicks. Dan-vil Schenkel and Bryan Meredith split time in goal for the Blue and White, each contributing to the 7th shutout of the season.

With the victory, MU improved its unbeaten streak to 20 games, dating back to the 2004 season. The victory also marked the Hawks’ first NEC win of the season. They host rival LIU on Friday, October 3 p.m.

MU turned four days later to rout Mount St. Mary’s 4-0. “It was a terrific team effort,” said Turner. “To battle back from the 1-0 deficit in the first half shows a lot about the character of the team.”

Riding an emotional high from Friday, the Hawks improved to 6-2-2 overall and 2-0 in the NEC on Sunday with a win over visiting Wagner. It marked Monmouth’s fourth straight victory, while they improved to 13-0-2 in their last 15 matches on The Great Lawn.

In the game, Monmouth went ahead 1-0 when Rogers found the net for the second time on the weekend. Then in the 77th min-

Women Get Revenge
Blue and White defeat LIU 2-1, average losses from last season

MIKE TIEDEMANN
SPORTS EDITOR

With somewhat of a bad taste in their mouths from the previous year, Monmouth was determined not to let history repeat itself.

MU added another goal. This time, it was freshman Drew Van Bargen who hit an open Rob LaRocca. LaRocca was able to control the ball and with a single touch, beating the goalkeeper. The goal was LaRocca’s second of the year and Bargen’s first collegiate point.

In the second half Wilson added his second assist of the game with a cross to John Castro who beat back up goalie Will Pike.

“This is a good way to start the conference season,” commented head coach Robert McComar. “It’s always great to get a win, but we realize that we have a long road ahead of us and a lot of work to do, in order to achieve our goals.”

The home squad held a 14-2 ad-vantage in shots on goal and had a 6-1 edge in corner kicks. Dan-vil Schenkel and Bryan Meredith split time in goal for the Blue and White, each contributing to the 7th shutout of the season.

With the victory, MU improved its unbeaten streak to 20 games, dating back to the 2004 season. The victory also marked the Hawks’ first NEC win of the season. They host rival LIU on Friday, October 3 p.m.

MU turned four days later to rout Mount St. Mary’s 4-0. “It was a terrific team effort,” said Turner. “To battle back from the 1-0 deficit in the first half shows a lot about the character of the team.”

Riding an emotional high from Friday, the Hawks improved to 6-2-2 overall and 2-0 in the NEC on Sunday with a win over visiting Wagner. It marked Monmouth’s fourth straight victory, while they improved to 13-0-2 in their last 15 matches on The Great Lawn.

In the game, Monmouth went ahead 1-0 when Rogers found the net for the second time on the weekend. Then in the 77th min-

Women Get Revenge
Blue and White defeat LIU 2-1, average losses from last season

MIKE TIEDEMANN
SPORTS EDITOR

With somewhat of a bad taste in their mouths from the previous year, Monmouth was determined not to let history repeat itself.

MU added another goal. This time, it was freshman Drew Van Bargen who hit an open Rob LaRocca. LaRocca was able to control the ball and with a single touch, beating the goalkeeper. The goal was LaRocca’s second of the year and Bargen’s first collegiate point.

In the second half Wilson added his second assist of the game with a cross to John Castro who beat back up goalie Will Pike.

“This is a good way to start the conference season,” commented head coach Robert McComar. “It’s always great to get a win, but we realize that we have a long road ahead of us and a lot of work to do, in order to achieve our goals.”

The home squad held a 14-2 ad-vantage in shots on goal and had a 6-1 edge in corner kicks. Dan-vil Schenkel and Bryan Meredith split time in goal for the Blue and White, each contributing to the 7th shutout of the season.

With the victory, MU improved its unbeaten streak to 20 games, dating back to the 2004 season. The victory also marked the Hawks’ first NEC win of the season. They host rival LIU on Friday, October 3 p.m.

MU turned four days later to rout Mount St. Mary’s 4-0. “It was a terrific team effort,” said Turner. “To battle back from the 1-0 deficit in the first half shows a lot about the character of the team.”

Riding an emotional high from Friday, the Hawks improved to 6-2-2 overall and 2-0 in the NEC on Sunday with a win over visiting Wagner. It marked Monmouth’s fourth straight victory, while they improved to 13-0-2 in their last 15 matches on The Great Lawn.

In the game, Monmouth went ahead 1-0 when Rogers found the net for the second time on the weekend. Then in the 77th min-

Women Get Revenge
Blue and White defeat LIU 2-1, average losses from last season

MIKE TIEDEMANN
SPORTS EDITOR

With somewhat of a bad taste in their mouths from the previous year, Monmouth was determined not to let history repeat itself.

MU added another goal. This time, it was freshman Drew Van Bargen who hit an open Rob LaRocca. LaRocca was able to control the ball and with a single touch, beating the goalkeeper. The goal was LaRocca’s second of the year and Bargen’s first collegiate point.

In the second half Wilson added his second assist of the game with a cross to John Castro who beat back up goalie Will Pike.

“This is a good way to start the conference season,” commented head coach Robert McComar. “It’s always great to get a win, but we realize that we have a long road ahead of us and a lot of work to do, in order to achieve our goals.”

The home squad held a 14-2 ad-vantage in shots on goal and had a 6-1 edge in corner kicks. Dan-vil Schenkel and Bryan Meredith split time in goal for the Blue and White, each contributing to the 7th shutout of the season.

With the victory, MU improved its unbeaten streak to 20 games, dating back to the 2004 season. The victory also marked the Hawks’ first NEC win of the season. They host rival LIU on Friday, October 3 p.m.

MU turned four days later to rout Mount St. Mary’s 4-0. “It was a terrific team effort,” said Turner. “To battle back from the 1-0 deficit in the first half shows a lot about the character of the team.”

Riding an emotional high from Friday, the Hawks improved to 6-2-2 overall and 2-0 in the NEC on Sunday with a win over visiting Wagner. It marked Monmouth’s fourth straight victory, while they improved to 13-0-2 in their last 15 matches on The Great Lawn.

In the game, Monmouth went ahead 1-0 when Rogers found the net for the second time on the weekend. Then in the 77th min-
A Word on Sports

OH NO! Not Another Awards Show!

ALEXANDER TRUNCALA
STAFF WRITER

No, it’s even better. It’s an awards ceremony. We’ve reached the quarter pole in the NFL, and it’s time to announce the nominees for some highly sought after and highly dubious awards. It’s also time where we honor the greats and not so greats from years past, by naming various categories after them.

For me, nothing goes by faster than the NFL season, which equates to the full semester going by. Last week was Sprin-

I'm not one of them.

December
Saturday 1st
Shippensburg
8:15 PM Home

Saturday 3rd
Wide
5:30 PM Home

Saturday 27th
Albany
6:00 PM at the Albany Arena

December
Saturday 8th
Shippensburg
5:30 PM Home

Sunday 7th
Farmingdale
7:00 PM Home Opener

October
Saturday 20th
George Washington
8:15 PM Home

Saturday 27th
Albany
6:00 PM at the Albany Arena

Friday 26th
Stockton
8:30 PM Home

Saturday 25th
Rutgers
8:45 PM Home

Friday 25th
Rutgers
5:30 PM Home

Saturday 10th
South Connecticut
5:30 PM Home

Saturday 3rd
Widener
5:30 PM Home

You can’t play musical quarterbacks. You’ll have to make a run at Delaware but give them a chance.

Tony Dungy, Colts- He’s done it before. He has a record of 1-3 against the Giants in the playoffs.

Marc Bulger, Rams- He got benched for a guy who once slammed his head into a concrete wall during a game. You tell.

Trent Green, Dolphins- Well, at least the weather in Miami is nice.

Mike Tomlin, Steelers- They’re 6-0 and have the league’s best defense.

Mike Tomlin, Steelers- They’re 6-0 and have the league’s best defense.

Marvin Lewis, Bengals- I know he has a bum ankle, but Cincy may be the most weak-minded team in the NFL.

Eric Mangini, Jets- Doesn’t look like a genius now, does he?

Jim Tressel, Ohio State Buckeyes- Yeah, I know he’s not an NFL head coach, but I think he’s the most likely to go undefeated.

Jim Tressel, Ohio State Buckeyes- Yeah, I know he’s not an NFL head coach, but I think he’s the most likely to go undefeated.

The Rich Kotite Award for worst head coach:

Jim Tressel, Ohio State Buckeyes- I know he’s not an NFL head coach, but I think he’s the most likely to go undefeated.

The Rich Kotite Award for worst head coach:

Jim Tressel, Ohio State Buckeyes- Yeah, I know he’s not an NFL head coach, but I think he’s the most likely to go undefeated.

The Vince Lombardi Award for team most likely to get the number one overall pick:

New Orleans Saints- Oh, I get it. Drew Brees and company are just throwing the season so that they can replace Deuce Mcclairest with McFedders.

Miami Dolphins- They’ve got Ronnie Brown, so what’s their excuse? Oh yeah, Cleo Lemon getting benched for a guy who once slammed his head into a concrete wall during a game. You tell.

Trent Green, Dolphins- Well, at least the weather in Miami is nice.

The Rich Kotite Award for worst head coach:

Jim Tressel, Ohio State Buckeyes- Yeah, I know he’s not an NFL head coach, but I think he’s the most likely to go undefeated.

The Rich Kotite Award for worst head coach:

Jim Tressel, Ohio State Buckeyes- Yeah, I know he’s not an NFL head coach, but I think he’s the most likely to go undefeated.

The Vince Lombardi Award for team most likely to get the number one overall pick:

New Orleans Saints- Oh, I get it. Drew Brees and company are just throwing the season so that they can replace Deuce Mcclairest with McFedders.

Miami Dolphins- They’ve got Ronnie Brown, so what’s their excuse? Oh yeah, Cleo Lemon getting benched for a guy who once slammed his head into a concrete wall during a game. You tell.

Trent Green, Dolphins- Well, at least the weather in Miami is nice.

The Rich Kotite Award for worst head coach:

Jim Tressel, Ohio State Buckeyes- Yeah, I know he’s not an NFL head coach, but I think he’s the most likely to go undefeated.

The Vince Lombardi Award for team most likely to get the number one overall pick:

New Orleans Saints- Oh, I get it. Drew Brees and company are just throwing the season so that they can replace Deuce Mcclairest with McFedders.

Miami Dolphins- They’ve got Ronnie Brown, so what’s their excuse? Oh yeah, Cleo Lemon getting benched for a guy who once slammed his head into a concrete wall during a game. You tell.

Trent Green, Dolphins- Well, at least the weather in Miami is nice.

The Rich Kotite Award for worst head coach:

Jim Tressel, Ohio State Buckeyes- Yeah, I know he’s not an NFL head coach, but I think he’s the most likely to go undefeated.

The Vince Lombardi Award for team most likely to get the number one overall pick:

New Orleans Saints- Oh, I get it. Drew Brees and company are just throwing the season so that they can replace Deuce Mcclairest with McFedders.

Miami Dolphins- They’ve got Ronnie Brown, so what’s their excuse? Oh yeah, Cleo Lemon getting benched for a guy who once slammed his head into a concrete wall during a game. You tell.

Trent Green, Dolphins- Well, at least the weather in Miami is nice.

The Rich Kotite Award for worst head coach:

Jim Tressel, Ohio State Buckeyes- Yeah, I know he’s not an NFL head coach, but I think he’s the most likely to go undefeated.

The Vince Lombardi Award for team most likely to get the number one overall pick:

New Orleans Saints- Oh, I get it. Drew Brees and company are just throwing the season so that they can replace Deuce Mcclairest with McFedders.

Miami Dolphins- They’ve got Ronnie Brown, so what’s their excuse? Oh yeah, Cleo Lemon getting benched for a guy who once slammed his head into a concrete wall during a game. You tell.

Trent Green, Dolphins- Well, at least the weather in Miami is nice.

The Rich Kotite Award for worst head coach:

Jim Tressel, Ohio State Buckeyes- Yeah, I know he’s not an NFL head coach, but I think he’s the most likely to go undefeated.

The Vince Lombardi Award for team most likely to get the number one overall pick:

New Orleans Saints- Oh, I get it. Drew Brees and company are just throwing the season so that they can replace Deuce Mcclairest with McFedders.

Miami Dolphins- They’ve got Ronnie Brown, so what’s their excuse? Oh yeah, Cleo Lemon getting benched for a guy who once slammed his head into a concrete wall during a game. You tell.

Trent Green, Dolphins- Well, at least the weather in Miami is nice.

The Rich Kotite Award for worst head coach:

Jim Tressel, Ohio State Buckeyes- Yeah, I know he’s not an NFL head coach, but I think he’s the most likely to go undefeated.
Freshman Ryan Kinne and the men's soccer team were firing on all cylinders, scoring 7 total goals in wins against NJIT and Mount St. Mary's.

Story on page 22