Renown Speaker Highlights Leadership Conference

PAGE SOCANO / SENIOR EDITOR

Student leaders attended the annual Fall Leadership Conference in Anacon Hall on October 17 from 3-6 p.m. to learn strategies to better lead the organizations and clubs on campus and better represent the University.

Starting off the afternoon was an introduction by Tyler Havens, Area Director of Student Activities for Greek Life and the coordinator of the Fall Leadership Conference event, who introduced the keynote speaker, Dan Maxwell.

Formerly the director of student activities at Western Illinois University, Maxwell is now the Campus Center Director from Indiana University-Purdue University, Indiana. He gave a presentation telling students about a young, successful man, who committed suicide.

The man was a leader who touched many lives, and no one will ever know why he did it. If you don’t feel challenged, you are not paying attention. Maxwell is expecting you to challenge students and help them feel connected. The moment you get disconnected, the easier it is to just walk away,” said Maxwell during his presentation on Friday.

“I felt that having so many years between working with students at WIU, The University of Arizona, and Syracuse University, for over 20 years, he would have some good lessons and insights for students for working with student groups and each other,” explained Havens.

Maxwell was one of the programs students were able to attend after Maxwell’s presentation included, “Leading Without Leaving Anyone Behind”, “Builders of Community”, “Times Flies Like an Arrow, Fruit Flies Like a Banana”, and “Goal Setting and Motivation for Student Leaders.”

“I attended the time management seminar presented by Heather Kelly. I thought it was a good seminar presented by someone who knows and understands how hard time management is. She gave a well organized PowerPoint presentation and offered some helpful tips, like to make a weekly schedule detailed by the hour and avoid time consuming frivolous activities,” said Senior, Mark Schechter.

“I attended the conference to represent Habitat for Humanity. So, it was really important to me,” stated Senior and president of Habitat for Humanity, Marina Wagner.

To represent each group, student groups are required to have one at least executive board member and one additional member attend the conference.

“Everyone in the Office of Student Activities and Student Center Operations has a hand in organizing the conference. We start by sending out a "Call for Programs" to faculty, staff, and administrators to present their programs and topics related to student group/organization/personal development. When we receive the program forms, we then look them over to see what we feel will be a benefit to our students and student groups,” said Havens.

This program has been a requirement for student groups who are recognized by the Student Government Association for years.

Monmouth professors are involved with presenting programs after the keynote speaker is done to further educate students on learning about successful leadership. Students are able to choose which activities they want to attend.

Havens added, “We also look for keynote speakers from around the area and the country.”

Havens said, “The feedback from our participants was very positive from Dan’s keynote speech to the workshops. It was great to see such a turnout of organizations sending more than the required two participants.

The more students that we can reach and help to develop their organizational skills, the stronger our student organizations can become.”

Bolted Windows: The Debate

CHRISSEY MURRAY / MANAGING EDITOR

During the week of October 7, teachers in classrooms 234 and 235 in the Jules Plangere Center found their classroom windows bolted shut.

Faculty were notified by the Facilities Management staff this past weekend after the classroom windows were being left open and that the facility management staff left their rooms because it was problematic with respect to climate control issues, yet many are up with the process of how they were bolted.

Carol Cavallaro, the director of Broadcast Engineering, has been working here since the early 1990s. “I’m definitely sympathetic of the need to save energy and I am at home as well, but the lack of control is unattractive,” she said.

Specialist Professor Kristine Simoes of the Communication Department said, “[The situation] is disturbing to the least. I have 24 students in PR Writing for nearly four hours in there every week. I’ve been teaching in there for five years, sometimes the windows have to prop open to get relief from extreme heat and stuffiness as a result of 25 computers running all day, printers, and students.”

Professor Purgason, the Assistant Professor of WMCC Adviser who teaches in 234, said, “I understand it’s for a loss of heat and cooling. I’m more upset that I had to find out myself instead of being informed.”

As a Communication major, a majority of my classes are in this building. I can’t imagine students or teachers being happy about this. If you want to open a window in your classroom you should be able to. Who are they to decide how comfortable a person is? Monmouth sends out emails concerning updates, student about things and I feel this is an important issue to be updated on,” said Victoria Lucido, a Senior Public Relations/Journalism major.

Patricia Swanack, the Vice President for Administrative Services, explained, “The building was designed in the late 1960’s when energy was less expensive. The original plans were not re-approved, but allowed by the building code in effect at that time. The windows were designated to be operable so that on certain days the occupants could take advantage of favorable weather conditions and the expense incurred by the university would not be that severe. We are finding that once the windows are opened we sometimes have to re-close them due to weather, the windows require maintenance, and the expense incurred.”

Monmouth’s Energy Resource Committee has been in full force and a Sustainability Council is in the midst of being created as well.

Monmouth University has adopted the standards of ASHRAE, the American Society of Heating, Refrigerating and Air-Conditioning Engineers. Information can be found online on the Environmental Services page.

Windows continued on pg. 18
On October 16, at approximately 9:00 PM, a home invasion took place at 166 Castlewall Avenue, Long Branch. The location is a rental property located in the Elberon section of Long Branch. The property was rented by several University students. Entry was made through an unlocked front door. Long Branch Police are actively investigating the case.

All students are reminded, when living off campus, to conduct a security survey of their rental properties. They should familiarize themselves with locking mechanisms on all doors and windows and should secure their premises at all times. If anyone is interested in having the University Police respond to their off campus locations to assist them with a security survey they should contact the University Police at 732-571-3472.

Lastly, all students who live in off campus properties are reminded that if they must call the police, they should first call the local police in the town in which they reside. If they need any further assistance, they can contact the University Police.

William McElrath
Chief of Police

Monmouth University Police Department
Crimes By Location

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Location</th>
<th>Crime</th>
<th>Preventable</th>
<th>Case</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>10/15/2008</td>
<td>1111 hrs</td>
<td>Elmwood Hall</td>
<td>Possession of CDS</td>
<td>No</td>
<td>Ex-Cleared</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10/15/2008</td>
<td>2356 hrs</td>
<td>Lot 25A</td>
<td>Theft</td>
<td>No</td>
<td>Active</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10/15/2008</td>
<td>0114 hrs</td>
<td>Willow Hall</td>
<td>Possession/Consumption of Alcohol/underage</td>
<td>No</td>
<td>Arrest</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10/18/2008</td>
<td>1200 hrs</td>
<td>Lot 25A</td>
<td>Possession of Alcohol/underage</td>
<td>No</td>
<td>Arrest</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10/18/2008</td>
<td>0500 hrs</td>
<td>Willow Hall</td>
<td>Possession/Consumption of Alcohol/underage</td>
<td>No</td>
<td>Arrest</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10/18/2008</td>
<td>2230 hrs</td>
<td>Lot 1</td>
<td>Possession of Alcohol/underage</td>
<td>No</td>
<td>Arrest</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10/19/2008</td>
<td>0114 hrs</td>
<td>Elmwood Hall</td>
<td>Student Misconduct</td>
<td>No</td>
<td>Ex-Cleared</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Workshop continued on pg. 18

Students attended a writing workshop presented by Susan Berrios, a Writing Assistant, on the active and passive voice at the Writing Center on Thursday October 16.

“I had read of similar series at other universities. I thought that Monmouth would be a great place to try grammar workshops as long as they were short and fun. The tremendous response for the first workshop apparently confirms my supposition. I then put out an e-mail late Friday, promoting the second workshop, and by Monday morning the two workshops were half full,” according to Jane DeTullio, Director of the Writing Center, on how the workshop series came about.

According to Berrios the topics for the series that were selected were ones that would “meet the majority of students’ needs, and all students have to write academic papers.”

The main point of the workshop was to differentiate between the active and passive voice.

“Being able to understand the difference between active and passive voice is useful, particularly if students are writing in a discipline that deems one voice more appropriate than the other,” said Berrios.

“Poor grammar impedes the communication of many wonderful ideas,” said DeTullio. “Often, instructors have difficulty comprehending the students’ written responses because of run-on sentences, words used incorrectly, or numerous punctuation errors.”

Workshop continued on pg. 18
MU Hosts Opera Trip to the Met

Forty students went to the Metropolitan Opera House on Tuesday, October 14, to see Don Giovanni. Don Giovanni is a ladies man and manipulates everyone into getting his way. Throughout the opera, women want to be with him, people want to kill him, while his overworked and unappreciated servant Leporellio just wants some recognition and to leave him alone.

Students put down a deposit of ten dollars and it was returned to them with their ticket when they got on the bus. The bus, backstage tour ticket and ticket to Don Giovanni is a year in advance and tickets are on sale, typically in August. This was the Philadelphia Museum of Art and Don Giovanni. The trips are planned a year in advance and tickets are purchased as soon as they go on sale, typically in August. This was their fifth semester running these trips and each opera trip, Professor Priscilla Simonelli tries to vary the operas in period, composers, and type.

“I was always interested in the opera. When I didn't go because it was too expensive, I would have a weekend showing of the opera. It was the idea of Don Giovanni to actually go and see one of the trip’s coordinators, Professor Simonelli. 'An Opera is an incredible work of art. You have everything; lyrics, music, graphic arts (scenery), ballet, and even the spectator is part of the show. You blend the whole thing and are a piece of it. It's incredible to feel the audience being moved by Leporello’s asides or touched by the characters, whether human or not. So I guess it really ain't over 'till the fat lady sings.'

“[T]his trip was very enjoyable. The tour was a great learning experience and the opera itself was excellent.”

YURI ALBERTAIO
Sophomore

Sophomore, Yuri Alberto stated, “I thought this trip was very enjoyable. The tour was a great learning experience and the opera itself was excellent. It’s incredible to feel the audience being moved by the characters, whether human or not. Even the spectator is part of the show. So I guess it really ain’t over ’till the fat lady sings.”

Students visited Metropolitan Opera House (pictured above) on a trip offered by the School of Humanities and Social Sciences, The History Department and the Department of Philosophy, Religion, and Interdisciplinary Studies.

“My name is Here
My Major Here
Your Name Here

ATTENTION SENIORS & GRADUATE STUDENTS

Did you know that you have to apply to GRADUATE?

If you think you will finish your degree at the end of this semester you must apply to graduate!

PLEASE TAKE NOTE OF THESE IMPORTANT DATES FOR THE JANUARY 15TH, 2009 GRADUATION:

December 15, 2008: Deadline to submit Graduation Applications through e-FORM’s

January 1, 2009: Deadline to submit Substitutions, or Waivers through e-FORM’s

Please note: Applications, Substitutions, or Waivers received after the deadline dates will not be processed.
Sigma Pi Hosts Deal or No Deal

CHRISTINE MURRAY
MANAGING EDITOR

Pollak Theatre held Sigma Pi’s first Deal or No Deal on Wednesday, October 1.

Sal Fiore, the president of Sigma Pi, said, “We decided to do Deal or No Deal because we wanted to do something a little different for everyone. The show is very popular, and we thought it would be a great way to get all the Greek organizations together, give away money to them, and raise money for a good cause.”

Andrew Beuschel, the fund-raising chair for Sigma Pi added, “This is the first time doing this event but we want to make it an annual thing, we saw the success of other organizations and wanted to throw something big too.”

“The cases were borrowed from Lucky Leo’s Arcade on the boardwalk in Seaside, where Beuschel works, all of the money given away was donated by the brothers of Sigma Pi. Gift certificates, either bought or donated, were raffled off during breaks between contestants and the dance team performed around the middle of the show, moving the night along and keeping the audience involved,” Fiore said.

A member of Alpha Xi Delta, Peter Sullivan of Theta Xi, Vinny Oliva of Tau Kappa Epsilon, Courtney Killard of Theta Phi Alpha, Staci Szymanski of Delta Phi Epsilon, George Roa of Phi Sigma Kappa, Jenia Uzenek of Zeta Tau Alpha, Amanda Tumininia of Phi Sigma Sigma, and Veronica Blostein of Alpha Sigma Tau were the nine participants.

Contestant Veronica Blostein said, “I wanted to be a part of this event because I like the TV show and it sounded like a lot of fun, and since I make no money at my job, the extra cash certainly sounded great!”

Blostein won the most out of any player, receiving $37 dollars out of a maximum $50. Besides monetary prizes, there was also a raffle for Sigma Pi’s 2004 car gift. Sullivan won a rubber duck after not accepting the banker’s deal. Fiore said, “The gag gifts were just something we thought of as a funny, creative way to make things a little more entertaining. I think it worked out well.”

Stephanie Seeley, an audience member, said, “I think the most amusing contestant was ‘little Pete’. He wouldn’t give up and he really got involved in the show.”

Jerry Messana, the host imper-sonating Howie Mandel, agreed, “The best was definitely Pete from Theta Xi. He is funny and as we all know very loud... it looked like he had a great time up there.”

Messana was well liked among the crowd as well. “My favorite part of the night is how much fun, and we all thought it would be a great way to get all the Greek organizations together, give away money to them, and raise money for a good cause.”

“We decided to do Deal or No Deal because we wanted to do something a little different for everyone...we thought it would be a great way to get all the Greek organizations together, give away money to them, and raise money for a good cause.”

SAL FIORE
President, Sigma Pi

Jerry really was like Howie Man-del. He really played the part and really made the show realistic,” Seeley said. “Blostein agreed, “I thought Jen-ry was hilarious.”

“I used to watch the show with my mom and dad, but had to Youtube Howie to get familiar with his moves. I really enjoyed being introduced and shocking everyone with my outrageous getup... I feel like it got a great reaction. It’s not every day you get to be a fool in front of a large amount of people and I’m not afraid of being on stage and looking like an idiot, so the guys always make me get up there. I was happy from the feedback I got around campus and definitely made the guys proud.”

Music and sound effects for the show were executed by Fiore, who found his materials from a soundboard online at www.sound-board.com/sb/studio/Deal_Or_No_Deal_sound.aspx. Lighting was done by Pat Doyle, another brother of Sigma Pi.

Fiore, as the banker, also calculated the offers. He found a Deal or No Deal Risk Calculator online that he Googled and Reza Naghibi provided the website at http://www.rezahtool.com deal. Twenty-five percent of the proceeds went to their national philanthropy, the Sam Spady Foundation. It honors the memory of Samantha Spady, a 19-year-old student at Colorado State University, who died of alcohol poisoning on September 5, 2004. Their foundation is used to educate all parents and students on the dangers of alcohol, specifically high risk consumption, and the signs and symptoms of alcohol poisoning.

Fiore said, “This is something that personally took an emotional inter-est with. Going to surrounding high schools around the area really moves me. I feel that if high school seniors see kids their own age or close, it could hit them harder. So far, including this year and last year, we have done Sam Spady Projects at Manasquan, Long Branch, Manalapan, Keansburg, Howell, and Shore Regional High Schools. My calculations estimate that we reached about 2,000 high school seniors and others, and passed out Sam Spady cards to all of them.”

“In the past, we had a week-long alcohol awareness event as our ACE Project (Altruistic Campus Experience) in 2006. We also co-sponsored the Underage Drink-ing Coalition Alcohol Awareness Event where we spoke as well. We do the Sam Spady Projects at surrounding high schools and a few events on campus in the past and future,” Fiore said.

Messana said, “I would think we would do this event again. It has been a few years since Sigma Pi has done a fundraiser, I believe it went well overall. Many people involved in different Greek orga-nizations gave me compliments as well. It would only get better if we did it next year.”

MONMOUTH UNIVERSITY GRADUATE STUDENT EVENTS

Attention all Monmouth University graduate students. The Monmouth University Graduate Admission Office, in conjunction with the Graduate Student Advisory Committee, present:

October 30, 2008, 6–7 PM Student Center, 3rd Floor, Carol Affitto Room
Balancing it all without losing your mind: Surviving the transition into graduate school.
Presenter: Dr. Franca Mancini, Director of Counseling and Psychological Services, Monmouth University

November 12, 2008, 6–7 PM Student Center, 3rd Floor, Carol Affitto Room
From networking to interviewing: Ten tips for getting your next job.
Presenters: Karl Gordinier, President, Gordinier Resource Management, and William Hill, Assistant Dean, Placement/Student Employment, Monmouth University

November 13, 2008, 6–8 PM Celtic Cottage, 608 2nd Ave., Long Branch
Happy Hour: Enjoy a relaxed evening and casual atmosphere with other graduate students. Cash bar. Free appetizers.

Check your Hawkmail for more details about these events. Please call the Graduate Admission Office at 732-571-3452 to RSVP for these events.

September 16 - November 12, 2008
10/1  Film Screening: Casino Aces
10:30 am - 11:45 am, Peter Audunsson
11:45 am - 1:00 pm, Willow Audunsson
11/2  Tats! Tats! Cultural Exhibition
12:00 pm - 3:00 pm, Student Center, Inside Hall
11/15  Spanish-English Dance Workshop
1:30 pm to 3:30 pm, Student Center, Inside Hall
Dear Students:

As we get ready to welcome friends and alumni back for Homecoming 2008 – Celebrating 75 Years, we hope that you will make time to attend the annual Pep Rally that will be held in Boylan Gym on Friday, October 24 at 4:00 p.m. As part of this year’s Pep Rally, students will have an opportunity to win a free semester’s worth of books from the MU Bookstore along with a number of other giveaways. We are also very excited to note that the men’s basketball team will be holding its annual Blue/White Scrimmage immediately following the Pep Rally and we hope that you will stick around after the Pep Rally!

For those of you who plan to come to the parade and football game on Saturday, October 25 we want to let you know that the parade will begin near parking lot 16 at 11:45 am. The Hawks will then take on Central Connecticut State University beginning at 1:00 pm at Kessler Field.

The Monmouth University Police Department would also like to remind everyone who is driving to the game to pay particular attention to the no parking signs on the side streets in West Long Branch. The University has also been informed that the West Long Branch Police Department will issue tickets to anyone who attempts to park their vehicle on Larchwood Avenue.

Students, clubs and/or organizations who plan to set up a tailgating spot had until Monday, October 20, 2008 to submit the Tailgating Reservation Form and the $150.00 refundable deposit to SGA. Those groups are currently in the process of meeting with members of the Homecoming Committee to discuss all of this year’s rules.

Common Sense and Good Decision Making

Even though you and/or your friends may not sponsor a tailgating spot, there is a chance that you will stop by the student tailgating area to visit friends who are. If so, we ask that you take a few minutes to review the following Homecoming information and guidelines for 2008.

- Student tailgating will take place in parking lot 16 (behind Plangere Hall).
- Everyone attempting to enter lot 16 MUST have a valid state photo driver’s license or state issued ID. No exceptions will be made.
- Drinking games, competitive drinking, drinking paraphernalia is prohibited and will be stopped. Drinking paraphernalia will also be confiscated.
- Only the students that have registered for a tailgating spot may bring alcohol in lot 16.
- Students and guests are not permitted to bring bags, backpacks, purses, animals, alcohol or similar items into lot 16.
- SGA has contracted a FREE cab service on game day between 1:00 pm and 5:30 pm that will take students/guests back to their local address in the event someone is unable to safely and legally operate their car.
- Students and guests will also be able to access a variety of FREE food and non-alcoholic beverages which are being sponsored by ARAMARK, SGA, Pepsi and the Office of Substance Awareness.
- For the safety of the students/guests, vehicles will not be permitted into parking lot 16 after 11:00 am on October 25, 2008.

Should part of your Homecoming weekend involve the consumption of alcohol we ask that you do it in a safe, legal, and responsible manner. We know that it is possible to respect the law, be responsible and still enjoy all that Homecoming has to offer. Furthermore, if you live off-campus and are planning to invite friends over or host a party during Homecoming weekend, please be careful and observe the laws as they pertain to quality of life issues (excessive noise, trash, etc.) and the use and consumption of alcohol. If your off-campus gathering is drawing the attention of your neighbors, you run the risk of having the police show up at your rental.

Please be safe, be smart, have fun during Homecoming and GO HAWKS!

Sincerely,

2008 Homecoming Committee
The Outlook

Frank Gogol  Editor-in-Chief
Paige Sodano  Senior Editor
Christine Murray  Managing Editor
John Morano  Advisor
Sandy Brown  Office Coordinator
Lisa Pikaard  Graduate Assistant
Chris Nettia  Graduate Assistant
Eric M. Walsh  Sports Editor
Peter Tortucci  News Editor
Sarah Alyse Jamieson  Opinion Editor
Taylor Corvino  Entertainment Editor
Ron Gaskill  Features Editor
Leslie Weinberg  Club & Greek Editor
Jennifer Ernst  Features Assistant
Jennifer Fytelson  Associate Opinion Editor
Theresa Bosch  Associate News Editor
Christina Guarino  Photography Editor
Andrew Schetter  Associate Sports editor
Christian Keller  Technology Manager
Megan LaBruna  Study Abroad, Co-Entertainment Editor
Andrea Johnson  Lifestyles Editor
Candice Hart  Advertising Manager
Ali O’Neill  Assistant Advertising Manager

The Freeze on Spending

Frank Gogol  Editor-in-Chief

Last week President Gaffney issued a statement about the University’s efforts to restrict and control its spending in these tough economic times. He explained that it is not just the United States that is suffering from economic turmoil, but the world at large.

Some of the policies the University had adopted to decrease unnecessary spending are as follows:

1. Hiring will cease for the time being unless an offer had been made or a vacancy would jeopardize safety or academic accreditation.
2. Vice Presidents have been directed to scale back spending unless it is absolutely necessary such as in the case of paying bills or honor contracts. President Gaffney then spoke about the other side of the coin: revenue and tuition.

“Monmouth relies almost exclusively on student generated tuition and other fees as its sources of funding,” said Gaffney.

He continued by assuring readers that programs to attract new students and maintain the retention of current students would not suffer.

Noted in the statement was also a reminder that Monmouth University has controlled closely tuition growth making it one of the most affordable private institutions in the region.

In the statement President Gaffney noted that we will honor contracts that have been established. This is a bit vague, but at the very least an allusion has been made. This is a bit vague, but at the very least an allusion to the multi-million dollar Multipurpose Activities Center being built next to the Student Center.

One of the strongest points made throughout President Gaffney’s statement was preparedness. He explained why and how the University had prepared and taken action.

I wish that he would have addressed the other side of the coin:

1. How will students be prepared for these tough economic times?
2. How will we prepare for the next downturn?
3. How will we prepare ourselves as a nation?

My last piece of advice is to work harder at your job. Work harder than you ever have. The job market is suffering and employers are looking to cut back on staff to save money. If you work harder than the rest you will be a less likely candidate to be let go. No job means no money.

If we stick to these simple guidelines and help one another we will make it through these hard times and we will come out on top.

FRANK GOGOL

October 22, 2008

The Outlook

Subscription Form

Name ____________________________
Address ____________________________
City ____________________________
State __________________ Zip ______
Day Phone __________________ Evening Phone __________________

□ $25 Non-Alumni Subscriber  □ $15 Monmouth University Alumni
Mail this subscription and payment to: THE OUTLOOK • Monmouth University 400 Cedar Avenue • West Long Branch, NJ 07764 or call 732-571-481 for credit card payment

Did you know... your cartoon or picture can be here next week! It can be about anything but should be related to the Monmouth community, student life, or something going on in the news that week.
E-mail submissions to outlook@monmouth.edu and it could be printed here next week.

DISCLAIMER: All articles appearing in the Op/Ed section of The Outlook are solely the opinions of the authors and do not reflect the views of The Outlook’s editors (unless otherwise noted) or any and all advertisers. Opinion articles are run unedited and the content is the sole responsibility of their authors. All students and faculty are welcome to respond to any opinion piece that appears on these pages, and everyone is encouraged to submit an article for consideration. The Outlook reserves the right to withhold any articles deemed inappropriate or otherwise unfit to print in the Op/Ed section. Due to legalities, The Outlook will no longer print anonymous articles.

The Freeze on Spending

...you really need to ask yourself, “Do I really need this?” If you are being honest with yourself and the answer is no, do yourself a favor and do not buy the desired object.

Being frugal does not mean to spend no money at all. Though the school has adopted a good model to follow. Paying bills is important, especially right now. If you do not pay your bills you cannot build you credit and these things are all interconnected.

Interested in writing, editing, photography or layout & design? Join The Outlook! General meetings are Mondays at 8 p.m. in The Plangere Center Room 260.

MU WANTS YOU!!

Are you interested in writing or journalism? If so, The Outlook wants you to drop by the office and hone your skills while you build your portfolio.
E-Mail: outlook@monmouth.edu
Phone: 732-571-481

THE OUTLOOK
The Positive Act of Not Voting

ROD DREHER
ACT WISE SERVICE

All my life, I’ve cast votes in presidential elections that were votes against the Democrat rather than for the Republican. Such a campaign has all the explosive excitement of road tripping to Dubuque in a Civic Victoria, but it wasn’t hard to vote for the guy, considering the utterlyろう.

In American presidential politics usually requires discerning voters to resolve not to let perfect be the enemy of the good.

This year, though, I’m close to being done with that compromise. At the risk of scandalizing my high school civics teacher, this might be the first presidential and congressional election I’ve sat out on principle. As a character in Richard Linklater’s film “Slacker” says, “Withdrawing in disgust is not the same as apathy.”

I have forced medical personnel to perform abortions.

I’ve sat out on principle. As a conservative, full stop. Obama doesn’t deserve to win.

I have many different suggestions for every- one to follow to stay healthy.

It’s that time of year again; the air is changing color and falling to the ground, winter is on its way. Time to get out your winter jackets and boots! Everyone seems to get sick when the seasons are changing. I don’t know what you do, but I have a nasty cough.

It’s time to cover those toes, so put your sandals away in your closet until the spring.

LINDA CAMPBELL
ACT WISE SERVICE

Join the Outlook

Caribou Barbie

JENNIFER FYETSON

Listen, I’m going to be honest, I am not a fan of Sarah Palin. What is most disturbing is that she is considered one of the hottest females in politics today. Before McCain picked Palin as his running mate, pretty much no one had ever heard of her, except for some wild Alaskan.

Her tight twisted hairdo and accent has really made a name for herself, as she walks in the shoes of a former running mate. She seems to be running the country.

I want people who are smart and thoughtful, well-read and creative enough to get us out of the current mess.

I am not a fan of Sarah Palin. What is most disturbing is that she is considered one of the hottest females in politics today.

It’s time to cover those toes, so put your sandals away in your closet until the spring.

Candidate Should Demonstrate Knowledge

UNDA CAMPBELL
ACT WISE SERVICE

Ask just about any republican politi- cian who’s been paying attention, and she probably could give you chapter and verse about Supreme Court rul- ings she does not like.

habeas corpus petitions.

prevent cities from using their powers to regulate abortion.

She probably could give you chapter and verse about Supreme Court rulings she does not like.

If you asked Vice President Dick Cheney, surely he’d rattle off a series of decisions coming in June and upholding the Bush administration’s decisions to launch the war in Iraq, decisions she does not like.

The Rev. Wright’s spiritual son is disqualifyingly left-wing on social issues that matter most to me.

I’ve sat out on principle. As a conservative, full stop. Obama doesn’t deserve to win.

In 2004, leading Catholic philosopher Alan D’Miacitre an- nounced he would sit out the presidential vote because he rejected the two candidates in the race for the highest office in the land and the Republicans’ economic policies, which in his view undermined the stability of the traditional family.

But Republican vice-presidential nominee Sarah Palin couldn’t think of a reason to vote other than about a ruling with which she disagrees.

Besides Roe v. Wade, of course.

Hard to believe that people in the heartland from which she supposedly hails would have any trouble about a ruling that protects the lives of millions of premature babies and save the lives of babies born during botched abortions. The Rev. Wright’s spiritual son is disqualifyingly left-wing on social issues that matter most to me.

I think of the two candidates in the race for the highest office in the land and the Republicans’ economic policies, which in his view undermined the stability of the traditional family.

But Republican vice-presidential nominee Sarah Palin couldn’t think of a reason to vote other than about a ruling with which she disagrees. Besides Roe v. Wade, of course.

At least when they aren’t fretting about a ruling coming in June and upholding the latest doctor bill and dropping their joss over their shrinking 401(k)s.

What’s even harder to believe is that Palin couldn’t even tell CBS News Katie Couric that in June she was saying how the Supreme Court had “get-ted” a jury’s decision by ruling that plaintiffs were limited to only $250,000 instead of billions in punitive damages stemming from the 1989 Exxon Valdez oil spill.

Palin gave an incoherent answer and then in a later Fox News interview rejected the reasoning of her “amused” because she didn’t get questions she wanted to answer.

Now, might consider Democratic vice-presidential candidate Joe Biden self-serving by citing for Couric a ruling that upheld legislation he wrote, the Violence Against Women Act.

And you might believe the court correctly found that Congress shouldn’t be federalizing state crimes, something Congress too often does.

On the other hand, I have from the moment she ceased being uproarious of elected representatives’ authority, something that “conservative” jurists aren’t supposed to do.

But at least he had a clue.

If Palin were as sharp as her cam-career have nothing on a sports mother. I am not a fan of Sarah Palin. What is most disturbing is that she is considered one of the hottest females in politics today.

many left unmentioned.

I’m not going to base my vote on whether she talked about something in a single TV interview, but, like winter Sarah Vowell, I want people who know stuff running the country.

I want people who are smart and thoughtful, well-read and creative enough to get us out of the current mess.

It’s time to cover those toes, so put your sandals away in your closet until the spring.

In conclusion, everyone needs to make sure to stay healthy as the weather changes and our heads will do a 360 degree turn.

I’m going to reject both the Repubcan is making cutesy, sneaky, and pompous nation. Worse, the executive branch has far more freedom to act from the White House, Republicans don’t deserve to win this election _ especially if it’s hard to sympathize with 1960s domestic terrorists and crazies-black pants black shirts and paraphernalia (at least until Tina Fey, find out what a maverick job would do in a given situation and then do it?) McCain’s presidential promise to Washington’s rent-seeking, self-serving status quo.

Granted, anything could happen between now and Election Day that would change my mind. But absent something extraordinary, I’m going to reject both the Re-compassionate about the new realities.

McCain identifies cause Washington’s rent-seeking, self-serving status quo.

I’m not going to base my vote on whether she talked about something in a single TV interview, but, like winter Sarah Vowell, I want people who know stuff running the country.

I want people who are smart and thoughtful, well-read and creative enough to get us out of the current mess.

It’s time to cover those toes, so put your sandals away in your closet until the spring.

Caribou Barbie needs to make sure that they get plenty of sleep, warm, winter outerwear.

But if one does not get their proper amount of sleep, they can get sick or catch something much easier. Every-having issue that needs to come to mind.

I want people who are smart and thoughtful, well-read and creative enough to get us out of the current mess.

It’s time to cover those toes, so put your sandals away in your closet until the spring.

In conclusion, everyone needs to make sure to stay healthy as the weather changes and our heads will do a 360 degree turn. And when she debated Democrat Vice Presidential nominee Joe Biden it honestly made her find even more annoying. The statemement that tends to come with the fall.

I have many different suggestions for everyone to follow to stay healthy.

It’s time to cover those toes, so put your sandals away in your closet until the spring.

In conclusion, everyone needs to make sure to stay healthy as the weather changes and our heads will do a 360 degree turn.

And when she debated Democrat Vice Presidential nominee Joe Biden it honestly made her find even more annoying. The state-

mement that tends to come with the fall.

I have many different suggestions for everyone to follow to stay healthy.

It’s time to cover those toes, so put your sandals away in your closet until the spring.

In conclusion, everyone needs to make sure to stay healthy as the weather changes and our heads will do a 360 degree turn.

And when she debated Democrat

Vowell, I want people who know stuff running the country.

I want people who are smart and thoughtful, well-read and creative enough to get us out of the current mess.

It’s time to cover those toes, so put your sandals away in your closet until the spring.

In conclusion, everyone needs to make sure to stay healthy as the weather changes and our heads will do a 360 degree turn.

And when she debated Democrat Vice Presidential nominee Joe Biden it honestly made her find even more annoying. The state-

mement that tends to come with the fall.

I have many different suggestions for everyone to follow to stay healthy.

It’s time to cover those toes, so put your sandals away in your closet until the spring.

In conclusion, everyone needs to make sure to stay healthy as the weather changes and our heads will do a 360 degree turn.
HOMECOMING COURT ELECTIONS
MONDAY, OCTOBER 20 (12PM)  WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 22 (12PM)
VOTE ON ONLINE! COMPUTERS AVAILABLE IN THE STUDENT CENTER/DINING HALL

JERSEY DAY
MONDAY, OCTOBER 20
WEAR YOUR FAVORITE TEAM’S JERSEY

ORGANIZATION DAY
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 21
WEAR YOUR TEAM, CLUB, CLASS OR MU AFFILIATION SHIRT

HAPPY BIRTHDAY MONMOUTH!!!
WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 22  @ the STUDENT CENTER
MAKE YOUR OWN CAKE IN THE RSSC FOR FREE  - SPONSORED BY SGA & SAB

SPIRIT DAY
THURSDAY, OCTOBER 23
WEAR BLUE AND WHITE OR MU GEAR

PEP RALLY – Blue and White Game with Men’s Basketball
FRIDAY, OCTOBER 24  in BOYLAN GYM @ 4 pm
MEET THE TEAM, THE HOMECOMING COURT & ENTER TO WIN
FREE PRIZES and FREE SEMESTER OF BOOKS!  Blue and White game to follow the Pep Rally @ 5:15 pm!

HOMECOMING PARADE
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 25 @ 11:45 AM
COME OUT AND SEE ALL THE CLUBS/ ORGANIZATION’S MONMOUTH FLOATS AND THE HOMECOMING COURT

HOMECOMING FOOTBALL GAME
MONMOUTH HAWKS vs CENTRAL CONNECTICUT
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 25 @ 1PM @ KESSLER FIELD
HOMECOMING KING AND QUEEN AS WELL AS THE WINNERS OF PEP RALLY GIVEAWAY ANNOUNCED AT HALFTIME

For more information please contact the Student Government Association by calling 732-571-3484 or emailing: sga@monmouth.edu
HOMECOMING 2008
COURT NOMINEES

King

Jeff Cook
Mike Slisz
Angel Macias
Roman Soybelman
Matthew Monkan
Pete Mulroy
John Guyer
Ruben Woolcott

Queen

Amanda Klaus
Meghan Shaw
Chrissy Murray
Jenine Clancy
Danielle Atieh
Amanda Vitale
Kimberli Gerechoff
Erin Gallagher
Andrea Grafton
Adrienne Hansen
Ashley Chandler
JoAnn Thomas
HOME COMING 2008

COURT NOMINEES

Lady

Nia– Sophia Diaz  Kaitlin Corsaro  Sarah Gouveia  Erika Ortiz  Stacy Myers  Kathryn Perez  Dana Alexa

Duchess

Lisa Tambini  Lauren Niglio  Heather Marte  Danielle Guagliardo  Ashlea Baron  Chelsea Plaistowe

Danielle Thompson  Ashley Bruno  Alyssa Lucia  Robin Craig  Allison Briscione  Beth Bredin

Princess

Kristina Hoover  Nicole Gagliano  Natalie Rambone  Mary MacDonnell  Beckie Turner  Jillian Morrow

Jillian Greenwald  Angela Aranda  Blair Fink  Catharine Cody  Christina Stanley  Courtney Killard

MONMOUTH UNIVERSITY

1933 - 2008

75 Diamond Jubilee

HOME COMING 2008
HOMECOMING 2008
COURT NOMINEES

Lord

Joey Contreras  Kyle Carty  Mark Cosentino  Will Ryan

Duke

Andy Stern  Anthony Chiappetta  Greg Morga  Kevin Sanders  Anthony Viola  Paul Cordasco

Prince

Joe Segreto  Joe Racaniello  Brian Brzozowski

Rob Sylvestro  Mike Oppelt  Andrew Beuschel  Kristopher Redzinak

CHECK YOUR MU EMAIL FOR THE LINK TO VOTE
MONDAY, OCT. 20TH @ NOON - WEDNESDAY, OCT. 22ND @ NOON
For those interested in writing for the Political News page of The Outlook, please contact Daniel Wisniewski, President of The Political Science Club to get started. You can contact him at daniel.j.wisniewski@monmouth.edu. All topics and viewpoints are welcome.
On Friday, October 17, the brand new Monmouth University debate team went to its first competition tournament at the West Point Military Academy in West Point, New York.

The debate team is made up of multiple sets of two-person teams who compete together as partners against other two-person teams from schools from around the country. While the debate team has 18 members, only ten people (five teams) competed at this weekend’s debate: Alex Barvay and Tim Tracey; Grant Lucking and Mike Borkin; Danielle Diodato and Tom Andrykowski; Kevin Sanders and Jackie Kovitz; and Krissy Mikulka and Bryan Tiscia. Accompanying these teams were team captains Daniel Winiarski and Margaret DeVico and coach Professor Joe Patten.

Each year, a single resolution is chosen by the Cross-Examination Debate Association and debated for the entire school year. This year’s resolution is “that the United States Federal Government should substantially reduce its agricultural support, at least eliminating nearly all of the domestic subsidies, corn, cotton, dairy, fisheries, rice, soybeans, sugar and or wheat.” In each round of competition, one team is selected to affirm this resolution, designating that team as the Affirmative. Of course, the teams come prepared with tons of evidence either supporting or refuting reasons to affirm the resolution. While it is relatively simple to generate a plan that affirms the resolution, it is also the duty of the debate teams, should they be chosen not to argue for the debate resolution, to find evidence that refutes any plan that could be presented by an opposing affirmative team. This evidence can be in the form of articles andquotations that directly counter arguments made by the other team, as well as counter-plans and/or disadvantages to the proposed affirmative plan. This all sounds very complicated, and sometimes it can be, but it all boils down to which team can most effectively argue that they have the superior evidence and logic behind their argument.

Each debate round consists of four nine-minute constructive speeches, four three-minute cross-examinations, and four six-minute rebuttal speeches. Each team member completes one of each of these elements within the round, and the round itself takes between 70 and 100 minutes, depending on how much of the allotted 80-minute preparation time is used by each team. There were two rounds held on Friday night, followed by four more on Saturday. This extremely rigorous tournament style forces every team to incorporate a high-level of stamina into their repertoire of debate skills.

Each round is judged by a debate coach, a graduate student, or professor from the host school. The judge must listen carefully to all of the arguments made, and renders his or her decision based on which team did the better job of presenting and defending their arguments. Additionally, the judges award up to 30 “speaker points” to teams based on how well their members delivered their speeches, regardless of whether or not that team won.

At the West Point tournament, each of the five Monmouth teams won at least one round each. By Saturday afternoon, three Monmouth teams stood at three wins and three losses each. The competition organizers then tabulated the speaker points from each of the tournament’s 3 - 3 teams and advanced the highest-ranked teams to the double-octo finals. The Mikulka-Tiscia team was the only Monmouth team to advance on to this first elimination round of the tournament. They were pitted against another 3 - 3 team from George Mason University. Since this was an elimination round, there were only three judges weighing the round. Mikulka and Tiscia fought hard, vigorously defending their plan to affirm the resolution by eliminating all biofuels subsidies. The judges, however, voted for the negative team, officially ending Monmouth University’s participation in its first ever college policy debate tournament.

While it is always disappointing to lose a competition, each member of the team is proud of its performance at the tournament. Monmouth students were able to win against teams from Johns Hopkins University, Bard College, The University of Richmond, Towson, The University of Massachusetts (Amherst), and the United States Naval Academy. The team is looking to go at least one more competition before the end of the semester. If this first tournament is any indication, there are more awards and trophies on the way for this ambitious and talented group of students.

Monmouth students were able to win against teams from Johns Hopkins University, George Mason University, Bard College, The University of Richmond, Towson, The University of Massachusetts (Amherst), and the United States Naval Academy.
Welcome to Fashion U: Where it is all about You and Your Clothes

Sail into Nautical Fashion

Marie Worsham, a freshman here at Monmouth University was spotted in nautical attire this past September. With her crisp outfit, Marie executes the classic nautical look with perfection. Marie portrays this look by wearing a simple navy blue and white striped top with a high-waisted red skirt. The color palette for this fun, sailor inspired look typically consists of these three colors, sometimes accentuated with a hint of gold.

Like Marie, be sure to keep this look simple and clean. Don’t forget, like all styles, the accessories you choose can make or break the outfit.

Basic nautical attire includes blazers with gold buttons, anchor prints, polo’s, horizontal stripes, white/navy pants with shoes like Keds, loafers, flip flops, cork heels, espadrilles, and boat shoes.

Being able to mix and match these items is what makes the nautical style so much fun to wear. But, pulling off this look can be more difficult than it sounds. It’s very easy to go overboard!

The do’s and don’ts of nautical style include keeping everything in moderation, not mixing your horizontal lines, wearing the right color combinations, using the anchor print wisely, and never over accessorizing.

The nautical look encourages use of accessories such as pearls, rope belts, straw bags, simple gold chains, anchor charms, pendants, bangles, and sunglasses.

When accessorizing, try to keep in mind the inspiration of a sailor. Wearing anchor jewelry, rope belts, and using the color palette are all ways to stay connected to your inspiration: the sailor. As Monmouth students living within close proximity to the beach, it is easy to be inspired.

Designers who have consistently been inspired by the nautical look include Polo Ralph Lauren, Nautica, and Tommy Hilfiger.

Each of these designers have updated and refreshed the nautical look with each new collection. Ralph Lauren is predominantly known for producing polo shirts with the iconic horse emblem, Tommy Hilfiger makes use of the nautical color palette in his signature symbol, and Nautica’s name, along with its signature sailboat also portrays nautical inspiration.

The nautical trend has also been spotted in high fashion through designers like Coco Chanel. Her runway looks are a little more edgy than the typical nautical look, yet she still manages to keep them fun and classy.

Like Coco Chanel demonstrates, there are always ways to update this trend in relation to your own personal style. Whatever way you choose to wear it, the nautical theme is a great fashion transition between Summer and Fall and it will forever remain a classic.
Creative, innovative and outstanding, The Coal Fired Brick Oven exceeds the average pizzeria in flavor, quality and freshness. Better known by their acronym CBO, the small restaurant opened only eight years ago in Bradley Beach and has quickly gained popularity among locals.

“I’m a loyal customer” says Susan Scribner a spring lake resident who shares her love of the Coal Fired Brick Oven. “I’m obsessed and addicted” she says “but in a good way” Scribner adds laughing.

The place is usually packed every Friday, Saturday and Sunday night, and sometimes you will catch them slammed on a weeknight as well, so make reservations. Either way, hopping or dead, I find the atmosphere to be pleasant and enjoyable. The trendy upbeat music playing and the smell of cooking pizza wafting throughout the restaurant, is part of what makes the experience so exciting. Scribner also finds the atmosphere to be one of the things that pull her back to CBO as well as their food and good service.

CBO pizza is a more gourmet style of pizza, sold by the pie and not by the slice. The pizza does not look or taste like what we would expect of a normal pizza pie. All of their pies are cooked in a coal fired brick oven and only stay in for three or four minutes at most. When the pies emerge from the oven they are garnished with ribbons of fresh basil and served hot to hungry customers. The crust is light and crispy, on the thinner side, and the homemade marinara sauce is flavorful with a thick yet smooth consistency. And, they use only fresh mozzarella cheese.

Depending on the mood of your taste buds, The Coal Fired Brick Oven offers fourteen different variations of specialty pies including a Bianca (white pie), four cheese, herb crust, pesto pie and many more. The Patti Pie is another specialty item unique to CBO. It is bruschetta merged with pizza and it is delicious. Instead of placing the chopped tomatoes on bruschini’s, CBO places their fresh tomato, onion, herb and parmesan cheese medley over hot pizza. I find the coolness of the fresh tomatoes to be a refreshing contrast to the hot pizza. It is my personal favorite and top suggestion. You may also feel free to create tasty combinations of your own. A personal variation of mine is to ask for the Bianca with sauce. Though it negates the pie being a bianca, the creamy ricotta cheese mixed with hot marinara is delicious and different.

CBO also offers all of their pies to be made with whole wheat dough and soy cheese, for those health conscious or lactose intolerant.

In case your mouth is not watering already, the Coal Fired Brick Oven also serves signature salads and panini’s. Fresh romaine lettuce chopped into bite size pieces and dressed lightly with vinegar and oil. Seasoned in perfect proportion salads at CBO are a pleasant surprise to a palate who underestimates greens. My favorite salad of theirs happens to be the CBO signature salad.

Located on Brinley Avenue, off Main Street in Bradley Beach CBO is a relaxed family style restaurant that for pizza runs pricy, a large pie costing 14.50 without toppings. But, for the quality of the meal and the upscale atmosphere, it balances out that cost; remember this is not your average pizzeria. CBO is one of my favorite places to eat as it is definitely at the top of my list for pizza. With its interesting and modern flare, and casual dress code, The Coal Fired Brick Oven is perfect for your next date or outing with friends. Thank You and Buon appetito!

PHOTO COURTESY of Janine Iannelli

The Coal fired Brick Oven is a favorite among locals.
SPREAD SOME LOVE WITH “THE ONE LOVE”

MEGAN LABRUNA
ENTERTAINMENT EDITOR/REPORTER

Have you ever wished that there was a way you could read up about some of your favorite bands from the perspective of a fan? While it may seem like a dream, it turns out you can, all while helping raise money for charity! The One Love campaign, or TOL, takes musicians, artists, managers, super fans and more and brings them all together to share their love and passion for music, life, and one another.

TOL is the brain-child of Jade Driver, Cassie Petey, and Ben Romas (The Click Five). The idea for part of the website came about two years ago, while the three were on tour in Nottingham, England. They were discussing how they could share their passion for music with others as well as bring people together to share their love of music as well. Jade remembers Romans had mentioned that his band had such a wonderful fan base, which spent so much of their time and energy on the band. He wished he could take a small percentage of that energy and use it to help others. She attributes this to having helped spark the notion of creating a blogging site that could not only bring music fans together, but also raise money for charity at the same time.

A year later on October 5, 2007, the idea became a reality. Jade shared that originally the site was meant to have only music industry people as bloggers, “Most were artists, some were song writers, and a few were from labels.” Some of their bloggers include artists such as, Ben Romans of The Click Five, Tyler Hilton, Ruth Collins of Wild Honey, Nate Ruess of Stahls of East 146, and Article A, just to name a few. They even took musicians from the world, most notably, The Wellingtons, a band which hails from Baltimore, Auburn, Missouri. One of their most recent additions is Greg Raposo, from the band Rap, was seen performing here earlier in the semester.

Each of these original bloggers had a personal thought and feeling that could be read and commented on per the site. There, fans could read and comment on personal thoughts and feelings that came straight from the artist. Jade mentioned, “there are two points to the site: bringing the music community together, and utilizing the site and it’s power to make a difference among other things. In the future TOL hopes to continue their charity work as Jade revealed, “We’ve done a few charity shows, and the site is partnering with venues and doing either weekly, bi-weekly or monthly shows where all the proceeds from ticket sales go to whatever charity we’re supporting that night.”

On October 5 of this year, The One Love celebrated one year of bringing the music community together. The site featured several birthday cake neighbor’s days, some of which included a slide show of birthday cards made for the site by thousands of fans and in Malaysia, as well as an entertaining original birthday song written by Ruth Collins which gave a shout out to every featured blogger on the site.

Also during this month, which happens to be Breast Cancer Awareness month, TOL has added a new tip almost every day for easy ways to help in the fight against breast cancer. TOL has added a new tip almost every day for easy ways to help in the fight against breast cancer. TOL has also created the first site that you could go to where you could find a way to contribute to the site can vote on the best blogs throughout the year in categories such as, easiest, most entertaining, best video content, and best video content, to name a few.

In this past year, the site that originally set out to have a few artists and other people in the industry Blog to help all of their fan bases and fans of the other creators never could have imagined, “We kept getting so many new readers coming wanting to blog. The original model was to have the artists blog and only a few were starting to blog with us, but now we have a dozen fans that emailed us all the time and some followers go to the site wanting to blog. In the past 30 days our traffic has increased by 600%. It’s finally taken off and I’m proud about it. It’s something we didn’t plan, but it’s starting to take on a life of its own.”

If you want to check out what’s going on with this fast growing community of artists and fans, then visit www.theonelove.org and help spread the love one blog at a time!

DANITY KANE IS DOWN TO THREE

TAYLOR CORVINO
ENTERTAINMENT REPORTER

Danity Kane fans need to get their first aid kits handy because the group is seriously damaged. For those of you who tuned into to last weeks tumultuous season finale of Making the Band 4, the remaining girls are using their first aid kits handy because Danity Kane is down to three. Aubrey and D. Woods are no longer members of the Bad Boy family. This leaves Dawn, Shannon, and Aundrea to continue the Danity Kane legacy as a trio. Throughout the season, outspoken Aubrey was notorious for speaking back to the main man Diddy. One of their constant debates was over Aubrey’s image. Looking back on Aubrey’s appearance from season 1 to now, it seems like night and day. Aubrey has transformed herself from the cute girl next door from Cali to an oversized diva with huge hair, over the top make up, and outra-gious outfits.

Her opinionated personality coupled with her eye popping ensemble made fans tune into the show each week. This past episode of the last episode of the season ended with a meeting between Diddy and the girls of Danity Kane regarding the direc- tion of the group. Diddy voiced a concern with the dynamics of the group and his multi-million dollar investment in them. He was not looking for a group confronting Aundrea who had emailed him months ago unhappy about the group and considering leaving Danity Kane. Aundrea explained how all she has ever wanted was to do was be in a group. Aundrea felt as though her other group members were using their output and not giving them their foot in the door in other realms such as acting. The same was asked of Aubrey who also wrote an email to Diddy, considering leaving Danity Kane. Aubrey had different reasons for wanting to leave the group. Aubrey explained that she had a lot of personal issues with the group in addition to the way it was managed. Yet a common factor that all the group members had was not satisfied with that arrangement and they didn’t trust each other.

Dawn put the dynamics of the group into perspective when she said that the only time the girls all hung out was when they were on tour or dealing with management issues. Outside of the Danity Kane world the girls never hung out, it was just business. Also brought up was the “Ebony and Ivory” clause of Aubrey and D. Woods that has contributed to the lack of sisterhood within the group. Dawn touched upon the fact that when the group had appearances to attend there were times that they attended as four. Aubrey has had to miss out on events due to her role in Hair- spray on Broadway and D. Woods tradition of attending to the opposite of the group which ultimately hurt Danity Kane’s image and brand.

Rumors had also been flying around the Bad Boy offices that Diddy was recording demos with Dawn for a solo record. In turn Diddy made Aubrey and other members of Danity Kane begin to worry. In Diddy’s defense he respond- ed by saying that he had been in the recording studio with Dawn testing out tracks for his new album. He went on to explain that since he was unsure of the direc- tion of his album he did not feel bad about recording demo songs with what he was doing. He stressed the fact that this was his record and he had to make every decision. Diddy was confident in what he was doing and he was not the bad guy in this situation. He did say that he would work with Danity Kane again in the future, but she just unfortunately got cut out of the group with the mess this time around.

To add controversy to the show, “Making the Band 4” was set to air on October 4th, 2008. In typical Aubrey fashion she was not the bad guy in this situation and he had to let Aubrey go because she was not the same girl he signed a couple years ago. He did say that he would work with Danity Kane again in the future, but he just unfortunately got cut out of the group with the mess this time around.

Also during this month, which happens to be Breast Cancer Awareness month, TOL has added a new tip almost every day for easy ways to help in the fight against breast cancer. TOL has also created the first site that you could go to where you could find a way to contribute to the site can vote on the best blogs throughout the year in categories such as, easiest, most entertaining, best video content, and best video content, to name a few.

In this past year, the site that originally set out to have a few artists and other people in the industry Blog to help all of their fan bases and fans of the other creators never could have imagined, “We kept getting so many new readers coming wanting to blog. The original model was to have the artists blog and only a few were starting to blog with us, but now we have a dozen fans that emailed us all the time and some followers go to the site wanting to blog. In the past 30 days our traffic has increased by 600%. It’s finally taken off and I’m proud about it. It’s something we didn’t plan, but it’s starting to take on a life of its own.”

If you want to check out what’s going on with this fast growing community of artists and fans, then visit www.theonelove.org and help spread the love one blog at a time!
As a comic book enthusiast who has been to a large degree let down by the recent entries into the genre has been to a large degree let down by the recent entries into the genre, especially since the first few movies, I was not expecting much from Iron Man. However, in the past year, the land- scapes of all three bands have greatly advanced suit of armor to help him escape. His experience opens his eyes and changes him as a person prompting him to build a more ad- vanced suit of armor to help him until the world.

When he announces publicly that he's going to build a new band, he in turn makes an enemy out of his second in command, Obadi- ah Stane (Jeph Bridges), who serves as the films main antagonist. As is necessary in the es- tablishing film of a franchise, Iron Man's origin story is cov- ered. This is done very successfully, alternating between past and present showing Stark as he was prior to his kidnaping, a cocky playboy without a care, and illustrating his transforma- tion into a better person.

The truly amazing thing about this movie is that the action scenes take the backseat to the characters devoted to character develop- ment. The other band members of the characters truly over- shadow the flashy obligatory battle scenes of most movie. Robert Downey Jr. translates this character so flawlessly that it is unlikely that another actor will play the role this genera- tion.

The second-disc version of the DVD contains three very worthwhile featurettes.

The first is called I am Iron Man and is a 108 minute be- nifit to the current war. escape. His experience opens his eyes and changes him as a person prompting him to build a more ad- vanced suit of armor to help him until the world.

When he announces publicly that he's going to build a new band, he in turn makes an enemy out of his second in command, Obadi- ah Stane (Jeph Bridges), who serves as the films main antagonist. As is necessary in the es- tablishing film of a franchise, Iron Man's origin story is cov- ered. This is done very successfully, alternating between past and present showing Stark as he was prior to his kidnaping, a cocky playboy without a care, and illustrating his transforma- tion into a better person.

The truly amazing thing about this movie is that the action scenes take the backseat to the characters devoted to character develop- ment. The other band members of the characters truly over- shadow the flashy obligatory battle scenes of most movie. Robert Downey Jr. translates this character so flawlessly that it is unlikely that another actor will play the role this genera- tion.

The second-disc version of the DVD contains three very worthwhile featurettes.

The first is called I am Iron Man and is a 108 minute be- nifit to the current war. escape. His experience opens his eyes and changes him as a person prompting him to build a more ad- vanced suit of armor to help him until the world.

When he announces publicly that he's going to build a new band, he in turn makes an enemy out of his second in command, Obadi- ah Stane (Jeph Bridges), who serves as the films main antagonist. As is necessary in the es- tablishing film of a franchise, Iron Man's origin story is cov- ered. This is done very successfully, alternating between past and present showing Stark as he was prior to his kidnaping, a cocky playboy without a care, and illustrating his transforma- tion into a better person.

The truly amazing thing about this movie is that the action scenes take the backseat to the characters devoted to character develop- ment. The other band members of the characters truly over- shadow the flashy obligatory battle scenes of most movie. Robert Downey Jr. translates this character so flawlessly that it is unlikely that another actor will play the role this genera- tion.

The second-disc version of the DVD contains three very worthwhile featurettes.

The first is called I am Iron Man and is a 108 minute be- nifit to the current war. escape. His experience opens his eyes and changes him as a person prompting him to build a more ad- vanced suit of armor to help him until the world.

When he announces publicly that he's going to build a new band, he in turn makes an enemy out of his second in command, Obadi- ah Stane (Jeph Bridges), who serves as the films main antagonist. As is necessary in the es- tablishing film of a franchise, Iron Man's origin story is cov- ered. This is done very successfully, alternating between past and present showing Stark as he was prior to his kidnaping, a cocky playboy without a care, and illustrating his transforma- tion into a better person.

The truly amazing thing about this movie is that the action scenes take the backseat to the characters devoted to character develop- ment. The other band members of the characters truly over- shadow the flashy obligatory battle scenes of most movie. Robert Downey Jr. translates this character so flawlessly that it is unlikely that another actor will play the role this genera- tion.

The second-disc version of the DVD contains three very worthwhile featurettes.

The first is called I am Iron Man and is a 108 minute be- nifit to the current war. escape. His experience opens his eyes and changes him as a person prompting him to build a more ad- vanced suit of armor to help him until the world.

When he announces publicly that he's going to build a new band, he in turn makes an enemy out of his second in command, Obadi- ah Stane (Jeph Bridges), who serves as the films main antagonist. As is necessary in the es- tablishing film of a franchise, Iron Man's origin story is cov- ered. This is done very successfully, alternating between past and present showing Stark as he was prior to his kidnaping, a cocky playboy without a care, and illustrating his transforma- tion into a better person.

The truly amazing thing about this movie is that the action scenes take the backseat to the characters devoted to character develop- ment. The other band members of the characters truly over- shadow the flashy obligatory battle scenes of most movie. Robert Downey Jr. translates this character so flawlessly that it is unlikely that another actor will play the role this genera- tion.
clips was borrowed from her Teaching sive voice the statement is less direct.
rect statement.
result, I rejoice along with them.” e ff icti v  e l y , and if their grades rise as a dents convey their knowledge more quirky format will hopefully help stu-
the women inside the prison to women learn the basic necessities will be donated to Redeem-Her.
inator.”
Aside from helping incarcerated women learn the skills to rejoin the world, the students are also benefiting from the program. “They are learning a lot of real life’s lessons, ethics, social awareness, ness, starting a business and where it takes to run one. No one really izes what goes into [starting a business] quite of that and are learning first-hand,” spoke Buzza.
shop, appropriately
to serve as a
The thrift shop, appropriately used multiple mation it used to have.
and society as a whole,” she said.
A student from the shop, appropriately named “Second Chance” will be opened on October 23. The grand opening will be November 12. The name “Second Chance” is significant to the thrift shop’s message.
Activity: “We actually asked the women inside the prison to submit their suggestions for a name for the store. We wanted them to feel like they were a part of it too. Our favorite name from those submissions was “Second Chance.” We ask students and staff to the receiver of it. The worksheet pro-

Mentioned from pg. 1

This section ended on pg. 1

continued from pg. 1

Professor Buzza, who teaches the class, discussed the idea with his students who all agreed that it was worth while for them to do so.
Buzza thought working with Redeem-Her was a good choice because full classes were necessary and “giving back.” Philanthropy was an important value.
“...It was the right thing to do,” Buzza stated.

writing Workshop

continued from pg. 2

ors. Clarifying these rules in a fun, finity format will hopefully help students convey their knowledge more ably.

The active voice puts emphasis on the subject of the action. On the worksheet provided at the workshop, the example of the active voice is given: “Loretta slaps Ronnie in the face.” Loretta, the doer in this case.
The active voice is used throughout the workshop and in the examples provided.

The next project for the entrepreneurship class is a fashion show, in which the students will work together with the students. The next project for the entrepreneurship class is a fashion
show, in which the students will generate enough revenue to hire one part-time employee.

Gerald Lewis, a student from the class, stated, “Not only do I have the ability to be part of the business, but I have the skill to help the students with things that could change the lives of people.
Lewis also said this project has been something that most people will never experience, and “they all can take in and use some use later in life.”

“The lesson here is taking all of the tings you learned in the past and using them to keep yourself and others happy,” said Powell.
The next project for the entrepreneurship class is a fashion
show, in which the students will
work together with the students.

In less than a month, “Second Chance” will be the first business also benefitting from the Redeem-Her program.

"Second Chances." We submitted it to those submissions was “Second Chance.”

ATTENTION SENIORS - CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

Here's a Chance for You to Recognize Your Outstanding High School Teacher!

THE MONMOUTH UNIVERSITY-ROBERTS CHARITABLE FOUNDATION OUTSTANDING TEACHING AWARD

Nominations are open only to seniors

Deadline for nominations - Friday, December 12

If you have not already received a nomination form, please stop by the Dean’s Office in the School of Education.
University Housing is Still Available!!!

The Office of Residential Life has housing available for full-time undergraduate students. We currently have openings on-campus for freshmen and sophomores. There is also limited space available in university sponsored housing off-campus (Pier Village, Diplomats and Fountain Gardens) for juniors and seniors. If you are interested in learning more, please contact Residential Life at 732-571-3465 or email us at Reslife@monmouth.edu

Get Your Sexy Smile On!

Premium Teeth Whitening With Virtually NO Sensitivity!

- Three Consecutive Whitening Sessions - $149
- Home Edition Maintenance Kit - $59
- White Expression TOGO Whitening Pen - $49

Planet Beach Contempo Spa
255 Rte 35 (Next to FedEx Kinkos)
Eatontown, NJ 07724
(732) 544-TANS (8267)
THIS WEEK OVERSEAS...

FLORENCE’S SECRET: THE LATE NIGHT BAKERY

LEA DALLEGGIO
OVERSEAS CORRESPONDENT

Proof! That is all the boys kept saying after their trip to Oktoberfest. They went to Munich, Germany to see if Oktoberfest was really like the movie, Beerfest. As you would expect, they fell in love! They could not believe their eyes; it was like a huge carnival with rides, food and beer! The beer could only be drunk in tents; there were about nine different tents they visited. Each one was different.

They had an amazing time and that’s all they talked about! They made it sound so great that I even went to see if I could book a week-end there. It did not work out but it’s all they talked about! They found in Florence’s secret bakery.

Above: Students crowd around to capture a moment of fun at Oktoberfest in Munich, Germany.
Below: The delicious array of baked goods that can be found in Florence’s secret bakery.

They were about nine different bakeries in Florence, with only a couple of them open late at night. One of my new favorite bakeries opened only after midnight and was locked; it was a very strange concept.

First and foremost the store is locked, but one of the workers stands off to the corner of the store. If you stand directly across from the store it means you want a sandwich. He then went back into his store and in the dark he would make your sandwich.

Finally when he was done, he would look side to side to make sure there was no police coming and hand you the sandwich. You would then give him money and walk away. You are not supposed to talk during this operation. But back to the secret bakery!

There are two bakeries in Florence that only open from two in the morning till six in the morning. So one night I dragged out my boyfriend and his friends to see if Oktoberfest was really as great as they said it was. We heard there was one near the church of Santa Croce, luckily that one was only two blocks away. So we started walking by the church and all of a sudden we started to smell this incredible aroma of sugar and sweets.

We followed the scent to the door of this kitchen. But then we saw the woman behind the counter and we sat and stared at each other, we did not know how to order or what to do! And since I am the only one who can speak some very broken Italian, my friends volunteered me to go talk to them. So I entered the store asking “Posso entrare”, which means can I enter.

The guy in the front greeted me very welcoming and told me to come in! But I was still confused on what to do, I looked back at my friends and one of them hands me a fifty and said “get whatever this gets us”. I looked back at the guy and said I want whatever fifty Euros is worth.

He looked at me puzzled and then grabbed my arm and took down 3 trays showing me that I would get all of that for fifty. Finally, it clicked that each pastry was only one Euro, so I said never mind then he handed me a tray and told me to walk around with him to show him what I wanted.

I ran around picking the most delicious eating things. I got donuts, tarts, chocolate layered cakes and cheesecakes; each thing was better than the next.

We stayed up until four in the morning stuffing our faces. The secret bakery has quickly become my new paradise!
October 22, 2008  ANNOUNCEMENTS

free concerts for students!
Bring a friend for only $5 each!
Call the Central Box Office for more details

Richard Shindell
Jersey Native's latest record features covers of Bob Dylan, Bruce Springsteen, Peter Gabriel & others

Glen Phillips
Lead singer of Toad the Wet Sprocket

Neil Berg’s 100 Years of Broadway
Sunday
10.26 @ 7

and dance!
Soul Street
Dance
Friday
11.7 @ 8

Saturday
11.1.2008 8 PM

@ Pollak Theatre
732.263.MUTX (6889)
www.monmouth.edu/arts

and don’t forget
Friday’s Gallery Opening
800 & Rotary Ice House Galleries @ 7

Robert Emmett Mueller
Lecture @ 6
Wilson Hall Auditorium

www.richardshindell.com
www.myspace.com/officialrichardshindell

www.glenphillips.com
www.myspace.com/glenphillips

with Antje Duvekot

www.monmouth.edu/arts
Announcements

Halloween Express

Check out our sidewalk sale every Saturday!

Exclusive Plaza
302 Route 9N
Marlboro, NJ
Formerly Marty's Shoes

• Costumes • Masks
• Decorations • & More!

20% OFF
Playboy costumes & adult shoes
Not valid with any other offer. Limit one per purchase. Expires 10/24/08.

10% OFF
Purchase of one costume
Not valid with any other offer. Limit one per purchase. Expires 10/24/08.

October 22, 2008

Continue Your Education

TCNJ offers graduate courses for professional development and personal growth in such fields as:

- Counseling
- Education
- Educational Leadership
- English
- Health and Exercise Science
- Nursing

Application Deadline for Spring Non-Matriculation is December 1.

Visit www.tcnj.edu/graduateprograms to apply.

Diwali

Come celebrate with us
Learn about South Asian culture and customs
Dinner Buffet / Guest Speaker / Puja

Free To MU Students / Faculty / Staff

Friday
October 24
6:30 pm—9:00 pm
Magill Commons Dining Room

Traditional Indian Vegetarian Food

Sponsored by the International Club and International Student Services 732-571-3640
Mass followed by food & fellowship
Sundays at 7 PM

Rosary
Mondays at 9 PM

Eucharistic Adoration
Wednesdays from 2:30-4 PM

Men’s and Women’s Bible Study
Wednesdays at 7:30 PM

Mass
Wednesdays at 7PM

Pumpkin Carving/Halloween Party/All Saints Day Party (come dressed as your favorite saint)
Thursday, October 30 at 7:30 PM

Catholic Centre at Monmouth University
16 Beechwood Avenue
732-229-9300

Gate to our house is in the rear corner of Lot 4, next to the Health Center.

All are welcome.
FOOD ALWAYS SERVED!
www.mucatholic.org

ATTN: STUDENTS - NEED CASH
$10hr + Benefits
Ocean office-flexible schedule - open 7 days
1-888-974-5627  T017101408

Equal employment opportunity employer

Property manager for sixteen units in Belmar;
looking for motivated, individual to collect rents, make deposits and handle maintenance and repairs;
consider housing in lieu of pay; prefer some working knowledge of Spanish;
salary $850.00 per month;
call Gus 973-890-5701 or Joe at 973-703-6894

LAW OFFICE OF ROBERT J. HOLDEN, ESQUIRE
- Traffic Offenses
- Municipal Court Offenses
- Criminal Offenses
- Expungements

Serving the Monmouth University Community for over 30 years

740 Broad Street
P.O. Box 7444
Shrewsbury, NJ 07702
Phone: 732-936-0777
Fax: 732-936-0779

LA SCARPETTA
ITALIAN GRILL & PIZZERIA
732-229-7333
WE DELIVER
(Minimum delivery order $ 8.00)

Open 7 Days
167 Locust Avenue
West Long Branch
(Next to Cost Cutters)

Package Deals for Students and Faculty at Monmouth University College

Buy any 2 Pizzas or 1 Dinner and get a FREE 2 Litter Bottle of Soda
Dine In or Take Out

Buy any Whole Cold or Hot Sub, Wrap or Burger
GET MEDIUM SODA FREE

$ 5.00 OFF
Entire Check
Of $ 30.00 or More, Eat In
Or Take Out

$10.00 OFF
Entire Check
of $60.00 or More,
Dine In or Out

Buy 1 Dinner and GET 2ND, Equal or
Lesser Value at HALF PRICE
Dine In or Take Out

BUY A LARGE
PIE & GET A
FREE LITTER
Bottle of Soda
Dine In or Take Out

Mon. & Tue.
2 Large Plain
& 12 Wings
$ 19.95+tax

Please, valid Monmouth University College ID required.
No need to bring this offers or coupons. Just mention this ad prior to ordering.
This offers or coupons can not be combined.
One offer or coupon per order.
Valid all school year or until canceled by merchant.
RUTGERS GRADUATE & PROFESSIONAL SCHOOL OPEN HOUSE

The open house will feature panel presentations by admissions, financial aid and Career Services specialists.
The mini-fair will include Rutgers graduate and professional school programs representing:

Arts & Sciences
  Labor Relations
  Library Studies
Business
  Mathematical Finance
  Psychology
Communications
  Engineering
  Pharmacy
  Planning & Public Policy
  Social Work

Tuesday, October 28th from 5:30 - 8:30 p.m.  Busch Campus Center – Center Hall
(604 Bartholomew Road, Piscataway, New Jersey 08854)

The Schedule of Events:
5:30 Refreshments (sandwiches, soda & cookies)
6:00 Panel presentations from specialists
6:30 Rutgers Graduate & Professional School Mini-Fair

Metin Yurdum
732-531-1250
Call for appointment
Walk-in services welcome

Co-sponsored by Rutgers Graduate & Professional Admissions and Career Services. For more information, call 732-932-7997, or visit:  http://gradstudy.rutgers.edu/

Medusa Hair Design Studio

82 Norwood Ave.
On the corner of Poplar and Norwood
Second floor Deal, NJ 07723

732-531-1250
Call for appointment
Walk-in services welcome

Any Service
10% OFF
MEDUSA HAIR DESIGN STUDIO
For First Time Clients Only
Must Have Coupon to Receive Discount

need an ex ed placement?

Experiential Education Opportunities
Internships, Co-ops, & Service Learning

Listings Provided By
The Office of Service Learning and Community Programs & Cooperative Education

Parker Family Health Center - Nurses, Translators, Bilingual Social Workers
Provide services at the all-volunteer clinic that serves anyone in need. Translators and Social Work students must be proficient in Spanish or Portuguese. Nurses do not need to be bilingual; however, it would be a plus. Approximately 4-6 hours per week required.
Contact Melody Ward

Assistant - Memory Loss Program in Retirement Community
Assist in an enrichment program that addresses the needs of senior citizens who require additional structure and meaningful activity due to memory loss. Programs include sensory stimulation, writing, journaling, music therapy, and art. Located in Trent, Falls, NY.
Contact Melody Ward.

Graphic Design Intern
Hands-on experience working programs such as Adobe, InDesign, Illustrator. Students will have the opportunity to work independently on assignments and create broadcast graphics and 3D animation from scratch. Located in N.Y., N.Y.
Contact Kathy Kennedy.

Radio Internship
Work hands-on with the KNS promotions staff on a variety of activities such as planning, coordinating, and executing events, guerrilla marketing, and listener contests. Must be creative and able to handle a fast-paced work environment. Located in New York, N.Y.
Contact Kathy Kennedy.

Maliah Ward
Kathy Kennedy
732-519-2461
732-519-2462
maliah@monmouth.edu
kathyk@monmouth.edu

For more information and listings please visit: http://www.monmouth.edu/advising/CCE/CCE_detail.asp
October 22, 2008

Who Are You Going to Vote for and Why?

Compiled by: Sarah Alyse Jamieson

October 22, 2008

Panel: It’s about Ability- Not Disability • 2:30- 4pm • Young Aud.
Karaoke Night • 8:00 PM • Underground
Dance Off • 10:00pm • Pollak

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 24
Fall Literacy Symposium • 8:00 AM • Anacon
Pep Rally • 4:00 PM • Boylan
Robert Emmet Mueller: A 60 Year Retrospective Lecture • 6:00 PM • Wilson Auditorium
Diwali: Festival of Lights • Magill
Craft Night • 8:00 PM • Underground
Homecoming Banner Contest • Hung by Midnight

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 25
Live from Homecoming Simulcast • 11:00 AM • Outside of Boylan
Homecoming Parade • 12:00 PM • Throughout Campus
Football vs. Central Connecticut • 7:00 PM • Pollak

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 26
Neil Berg’s Broadway Workshop • 3:30 PM
Neil Berg’s 100 Years of Broadway • 7:00 PM • Pollak

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 28
Visiting Writer Jan Beatty • 4:30 PM • Wilson Auditorium

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 29
The Evasons Mind Readers • 7:00 PM • Magill

To have your campus-wide events included, send an e-mail to activities@monmouth.edu.
We do not list club or program meeting times in this schedule.

GET INVOLVED IN CAMPUS ACTIVITIES!!

732-571-3586 • 2nd Floor, Rebecca Stafford Student Center • activities@monmouth.edu

Campus Events This Week

Wed., Oct. 24
6:30-9pm
Magill Dining Rm
Meghan Rothschild didn’t think indoor tanning would hurt her. She was wrong.

UV light from indoor tanning, especially when exposed at an early age, can increase your risk of melanoma... the deadliest form of skin cancer.

That’s what Meghan developed when she was 20 after being a frequent indoor tanner since she was 17.

Current estimates show that 1 in 5 Americans will develop skin cancer.

Do you want to be the one... like Meghan?

Indoor tanning is out.

To read Meghan’s skin cancer story go to www.aad.org/media/psa
PRSSA Brings in Public Relations Professional

TAYLOR CORVINO
ENTREPRENEUR EDITOR

An officially endorsed ethics trainer for the public relations profession in North America by Trust Inc., Ms. Subervi founded Utopia Communications, an ethically based firm, to make a positive impact on the public relations world. Prior to presiding over Utopia Communications, Subervi served as the managing director for the public relations division of KCSCA, the nation’s 11th largest independent public and investor relations agency. Subervi also founded Danlee Public Relations in 1995, which was ranked the fourth largest public agency in the State of New Jersey by PR Week Magazine.

Increasingly, companies are turning to their marketing and public relations partners to help them better communicate and develop socially responsible communications programs. That’s been our focus and I hope to pass it on to our future public relations professionals,” says Subervi.

As set forth by the mission of the national PRSSA association, Monmouth’s student society aims to foster greater understanding of current theories and procedures of the profession, appreciation of the highest ethical ideals of the profession, and awareness of an appropriate professional attitude that all public relations practitioners are expected to exhibit.

“Whether you are a Public Relations major or not, you do not want to miss today’s PRSSA meeting”

TAYLOR CORVINO
Press Treasurer and Historian

ZETA TAU ALPHA

October 22, 2008 CLUB & GREEK

Michelle Hacker and Jenna Uszenski show off their MU pride—strict but enjoyable agenda. They had meetings, seminars, lunches and dinners to attend to. At these meetings and events the Kappa Nu Chapter of Zeta Tau Alpha won many honorably mentioned awards: Financial Excellence, Quota Total, Academic Excellence. More importantly the girls won Crown Chapter, which is every Zeta’s dream to win! It was an amazing experience for both girls and nothing like they had ever experienced before. Michelle and Jenna will both tell you that their experience at the Zeta Tau Alpha Convention was life changing and an experience they will never forget. Both Michelle and Jenna grew closer as sisters and friends that week as they traveled the resorts—PRSA members with at least 5 years of professional public relations experience serve as role models of the public relations profession for the student association.

Two girls from the sorority’s chapter, Ka

photo courtesy of Taylor Corvino

An officially endorsed ethics trainer for the public relations profession in North America by Trust Inc., Ms. Subervi founded Utopia Communications, an ethically based firm, to make a positive impact on the public relations world. Prior to presiding over Utopia Communications, Subervi served as the managing director for the public relations division of KCSCA, the nation’s 11th largest independent public and investor relations agency. Subervi also founded Danlee Public Relations in 1995, which was ranked the fourth largest public agency in the State of New Jersey by PR Week Magazine.

Increasingly, companies are turning to their marketing and public relations partners to help them better communicate and develop socially responsible communications programs. That’s been our focus and I hope to pass it on to our future public relations professionals,” says Subervi.

As set forth by the mission of the national PRSSA association, Monmouth’s student society aims to foster greater understanding of current theories and procedures of the profession, appreciation of the highest ethical ideals of the profession, and awareness of an appropriate professional attitude that all public relations practitioners are expected to exhibit.

“Whether you are a Public Relations major or not, you do not want to miss today’s PRSSA meeting”

TAYLOR CORVINO
Press Treasurer and Historian

ZETA TAU ALPHA

October 22, 2008 CLUB & GREEK

Michelle Hacker and Jenna Uszenski show off their MU pride—strict but enjoyable agenda. They had meetings, seminars, lunches and dinners to attend to. At these meetings and events the Kappa Nu Chapter of Zeta Tau Alpha won many honorably mentioned awards: Financial Excellence, Quota Total, Academic Excellence. More importantly the girls won Crown Chapter, which is every Zeta’s dream to win! It was an amazing experience for both girls and nothing like they had ever experienced before. Michelle and Jenna will both tell you that their experience at the Zeta Tau Alpha Convention was life changing and an experience they will never forget. Both Michelle and Jenna grew closer as sisters and friends that week as they traveled the resorts—PRSA members with at least 5 years of professional public relations experience serve as role models of the public relations profession for the student association.

Two girls from the sorority’s chapter, Ka
Horoscopes

To get the advantage, check the day’s rating: 10 is the easiest day, 0 the most challenging.

♈ Aries • (Mar. 21 - April 19) - This week is a 7
Why do things keep happening?? Because you haven’t figured out the reason behind it yet! Figure it out and you will be able to move past it. Do it quick because this weekend it’s time to see friends, have some fun, and be ready to step up your game.

♉ Taurus • (April 20 - May 20) - This week is a 7
Life keeps flip-flopping and it’s driving you mad. Take some time to figure out what you want. Once you understand yourself better and enjoy yourself you will feel a bit better about your life in general. Make sure the focus isn’t entirely on you as the week progresses or else you will feel like you will never be able to get things together. This week is about self-revelation but remember, there are others in your life that your actions affect.

♊ Gemini • (May 21 - June 21) - This week is an 8
Things are looking up but be careful; as the weekend begins, your minor accomplishments will dissolve if you do not take steps to maintain them. If you can maintain your integrity, your weekend will become one of great memories.

♋ Cancer • (June 22 - July 22) - This week is a 6
Worried about your financial situation? Holidays will soon be arriving as will many bills. Make sure you plan accordingly. If you don’t know what to do, ask someone with a bit more knowledge than you and perhaps you can set up a plan together.

♌ Leo • (July 23-Aug. 22) - This week is a 6
You are not a planner but now is the time to look ahead. Yes, things right now may suffer, but it’s worth it when you accomplish all you hope to in the long-term. If you are feeling off balance, take a nice walk on the beach and enjoy the outdoors. The fresh air is good for you. By the close of the weekend, you finally feel ready for a social outing.

♍ Virgo • (Aug 23 - Sept. 22) - This week is an 8
Disorder in your life will drive you crazy but do not worry about it till the end of the weekend. For now, experiment! There is more than one way to get something done so why not alter your routine a little. Things will still get done and in a timely fashion as per usual but maybe you’ll have a bit more fun.

♎ Libra • (Sept. 23 - Oct. 23) - This week is an 8
Feeling like everyone has been pulling you in every direction? Why not lasso everyone up and bring them all to you? Comfort and friends is key for the week and you are on top of your game. Things may be off balance still but this weekend is a great time to sort everything out and find the cure to the imbalance.

♏ Scorpio • (Oct. 23 - Nov. 21) - This week is a 7
Feeling like something is missing? Physical exercise is a great way to work through the relatively detached feeling you’ve been experiencing. If that does not help, you have a few people that you can call that always seem to make you smile. Call them! They may just need you too.

♐ Sagittarius • (Nov. 22 - Dec. 21) - This week is a 6
You love looking first at the big picture and worrying about all the seemingly minor details later; do not do that this week. It’s important to make sure all the parts are functioning before looking at the whole. Organize everything because the importance is all in the details.

♑ Capricorn • (Dec. 22 - Jan. 19) - This week is a 5
Bite your tongue even if it hurts. Speaking your mind is not a bad thing but make sure you know exactly what you are talking about and to whom you are speaking. Eating your words does not taste very good. It may be a bit of a stretch for you but you can do it. Finally as the weekend comes to a close you can feel comfortable to be yourself again.

♒ Aquarius • (Jan. 20 - Feb. 18) - This week is an 8
The end of the weekend is about analyzing and sorting through your life so do not stress out for the rest of this week; push that off till Sunday. Be creative, have fun, try new things. Your life will return to its rightful balance Sunday.

♓ Pisces • (Feb. 19 - Mar. 20) This week is a 7
With midterms and grades coming in, you have a lot to think about. Is your major really right for you? Are you afraid to finally commit to what you want to do with your life because you are afraid to either do well or fall on your face? Stop worrying and look into what you really want. The answers are there if you are willing to take a second and really look at what you’re doing.

---

MU Students:

Interested in Comic Illustration?
Get your own comic published in the Outlook!

Call 732-571-3481
or email Outlook@monmouth.edu
Why get vaccinated?

Influenza (“flu”) is a contagious disease. It is caused by the influenza virus, which can be spread by coughing, sneezing, or nasal secretions. Other illnesses can have the same symptoms and are often mistaken for influenza. But only one illness caused by the influenza virus is really influenza.

Anyone can get influenza, but rates of infection are highest among children and young adults. For most people, it is a mild illness lasting a few days. It can cause:

- fever
- cough
- chills
- fatigue
- sore throat
- headache
- body aches
- runny or stuffy nose

Some people get much sicker. Influenza can lead to hospitalization and can be dangerous for people with heart or breathing conditions. It can cause high fever, diarrhea and vomiting, pneumonia and can be dangerous for people with heart or breathing conditions. It can cause high fever, diarrhea and vomiting, pneumonia and can be dangerous for people with heart or breathing conditions.

Influenza (“flu”) is a contagious disease. It is caused by the influenza virus, which can be spread by coughing, sneezing, or nasal secretions. Other illnesses can have the same symptoms and are often mistaken for influenza. But only one illness caused by the influenza virus is really influenza.

Anyone can get influenza, but rates of infection are highest among children and young adults. For most people, it is a mild illness lasting a few days. It can cause:

- fever
- cough
- chills
- fatigue
- sore throat
- headache
- body aches
- runny or stuffy nose

Some people get much sicker. Influenza can lead to hospitalization and can be dangerous for people with heart or breathing conditions. It can cause high fever, diarrhea and vomiting, pneumonia and can be dangerous for people with heart or breathing conditions. It can cause high fever, diarrhea and vomiting, pneumonia and can be dangerous for people with heart or breathing conditions.

Influenza (“flu”) is a contagious disease. It is caused by the influenza virus, which can be spread by coughing, sneezing, or nasal secretions. Other illnesses can have the same symptoms and are often mistaken for influenza. But only one illness caused by the influenza virus is really influenza.

Anyone can get influenza, but rates of infection are highest among children and young adults. For most people, it is a mild illness lasting a few days. It can cause:

- fever
- cough
- chills
- fatigue
- sore throat
- headache
- body aches
- runny or stuffy nose

Some people get much sicker. Influenza can lead to hospitalization and can be dangerous for people with heart or breathing conditions. It can cause high fever, diarrhea and vomiting, pneumonia and can be dangerous for people with heart or breathing conditions. It can cause high fever, diarrhea and vomiting, pneumonia and can be dangerous for people with heart or breathing conditions.
Robert McCourt Leads Men’s Soccer to NEC

“Goal is to win a 4th straight NEC title and make a run in the NCAAs. Anything short of that will be a disappointment for everyone involved.”

ROBERT MCCOURT
Head Coach Men’s Soccer

Monmouth University brought in Robert McCourt as the new head men’s soccer coach in April of 2004, and the Hawks have soared ever since. In four seasons as the Monmouth head coach McCourt, has led his team to three consecutive Northeast Conference championship crowns. He also reserves the title of a three-time NEC coach of the year award three times in his four-year tenure as head coach of the men’s soccer team. McCourt began his coaching career with the New Jersey Stallions of the USL Division 3 professional soccer league. In the 2000 season he won coach of the year honors after he led his team to a regular season championship and a national final birth. From there he became assistant coach of the Virginia Commonwealth Rams. As the assistant coach of the Rams, McCourt helped guide the team to two Colonial Athletic Association regular season and tournament titles in 2002 and 2003. In his time with the Rams, Coach McCourt honed his skills as a recruiter. This skill has been shown ever since he began his tenure with Monmouth.

As the leader of the Hawks he has been able to acquire some of the top soccer prospects in the country. CollegeSoccerNews.com in 2005 named McCourt’s first full recruiting class as the 38th best in division one soccer. The well known website also named the blue and white one of the “up and rising programs” in the nation. McCourt and the Hawks have proven the site right with their play over the past three years.

McCourt credits the team’s success in the NEC as the key to attracting better players saying, “The more success the program has, the better level of recruit you can attract. Also, the campus being beautiful and the location also plays a major factor in recruiting.” Other than the Hawks having great success on the field as a team, there have been individual successes that have certainly been beneficial to attracting players to the next. McCourt explains saying, “It helps when recruits see and rising programs,” in the nation. McCourt and the Hawks have proven the site right with their play over the past three years.

McCourt has been able to acquire some of the top soccer prospects in the country. CollegeSoccerNews.com in 2005 named McCourt’s first full recruiting class as the 38th best in division one soccer. The well known website also named the blue and white one of the “up and rising programs” in the nation. McCourt and the Hawks have proven the site right with their play over the past three years.

McCourt credits the team’s success in the NEC as the key to attracting better players saying, “The more success the program has, the better level of recruit you can attract. Also, the campus being beautiful and the location also plays a major factor in recruiting.” Other than the Hawks having great success on the field as a team, there have been individual successes that have certainly been beneficial to attracting players to the next. McCourt explains saying, “It helps when recruits see and rising programs,” in the nation. McCourt and the Hawks have proven the site right with their play over the past three years.

From Monmouth and then being selected by a professional team, McCourt understands that having team success makes it more likely for an individual to be noticed. It is a team effort that allows scouts to take notice and the coach explains this concept stating, “All the guys that are on the team have ambitions to play pro, some are re

Outlook’s Weekly NFL Picks - Week 7

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Home</th>
<th>Away</th>
<th>Buffalo Bills</th>
<th>Kansas City Chiefs</th>
<th>Atlanta Falcons</th>
<th>St. Louis Rams</th>
<th>San Diego Chargers</th>
<th>Tampa Bay Buccaneers</th>
<th>Washington Redskins</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Eric</td>
<td>Andrew</td>
<td>Lisa</td>
<td>Brian</td>
<td>Frank and Meg</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(3-5 Last Wk)</td>
<td>(3-5 Last Wk)</td>
<td>(2-6 Last Wk)</td>
<td>(2-6 Last Wk)</td>
<td>(4-4 Last Wk)</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(25-23 Overall)</td>
<td>(28-20 Overall)</td>
<td>(21-27 Overall)</td>
<td>(24-24 Overall)</td>
<td>(21-27 Overall)</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Twenty minutes into the game, St. Francis' forward Mary Wilks had a throw-in from the sideline that was deflected then scored by junior goalkeeper DeTata. It was DeTata's first goal of the season and her first in outer conference opponent Dartmouth, which saw them lose 3-0.

The NFSL has had its share of egotistical troublemakers. From the prototype Joe Namath, the quarterback for one game by the Titans, but also with the Titans. He was traded from the Tennessee Titans to the Dallas Cowboys. Jones pleaded no contest to one count of felony disorderly conduct. He was given 90 days for not having enough contact with his probation of one year, probation, and ordered to perform 200 hours of community service.

Field Hockey Defeats St. Francis on Senior Day

The Red Flash opened up scoring on the afternoon when Claire Lopez scored the first goal of the season against Long Island. Both teams apparently try to do in or- der to keep the best players on the field, Jones' latest blunder would have been a suspended prison sentence of one year, probation, and ordered to perform 200 hours of community service.

Field Hockey Defeats St. Francis on Senior Day

The Monmouth women's soccer team took a 2-1 win over the NEC opponents over the weekend, with both of the matchups taking place on The Great Lawn.

Field Hockey Defeats St. Francis on Senior Day

The Monmouth women's soccer team took a 2-1 win over the NEC opponents over the weekend, with both of the matchups taking place on The Great Lawn.

Field Hockey Defeats St. Francis on Senior Day

The Monmouth women's soccer team took a 2-1 win over the NEC opponents over the weekend, with both of the matchups taking place on The Great Lawn.
The Field Hockey team, led by seven seniors, collected their third win of the season against St. Francis University (PA).

Full Story on Page 31.